

We sometimes hear the wish expressed that if this town could be this and could be that, how much better it would be. Some of us have looked about us and have seen other towns that seemed to prosper more, that seemed to have more of the things that make for a bigger and better town than we have.

It is true that some towns do have more than we have, but in the majority of instances they have these things because somewhere in the town is a man who was not satisfied with things as they were. He wanted them better. He interested those about him and soon they became a group of men working together toward the accomplishment of one end. The result was a better town, a different atmosphere, an atmosphere that was progressive and aggressive and the town became known everywhere in that section as a good, live town. It takes live men to make a live town. We believe Cameron has enough live, progressive aggressive men to make this community all that we want it to be.

The International News Service releases a story from Washington to the effect that Herbert Hoover will "affirm" instead of "swearing" when he takes the oath as president. It is explained that Mr. Hoover, being a Quaker, cannot take an oath without violating the doctrine of his church against swearing. This may or may not be true, but has never been denied. This column is of the opinion that Mr. Hoover will take the oath as all others have done who have gone this way before him. Last year when Governor Smith was attacked because of his religion this column reluctantly published a review of the religion of Mr. Hoover. We gave the history of the faith of the Quakers and of course made mention of the fact that members are not permitted to take oaths. Also it is true that no Quaker is permitted to fight. Mr. Hoover will be commander in chief of the United States navy and army. All of this perhaps is unimportant as it does not affect prohibition which seems to be the great problem the new president will have to face.

Friday is the birthday of George Washington, a national holiday. It is an unfortunate verdict of history that men are endeared to the hearts of their countrymen by achievements in war. I reject the measure by which estimate of mankind is levied upon the glory of the individual. Washington, it is true was great in war, but I think greater in peace because he, among others gave us the foundation of the government, a charter of freedom for all peoples. Someday men will cease to measure greatness by the sword. They will assess the achievements of peace in their estimate of man. Many men who have lived outside the red road of war have done as much as the captain of hosts in battle, to further the progression of the race. Washington was great not because he met a necessity in the cradle days of the republic, but because he was a mighty figure in the struggles of peace. Washington's philosophy rejects the idea of a concert of nations so effectively advanced under Wilson. But we hold firm to confidence in the verdict of history to write large on the page of time their efforts for peace. Robert E. Lee, than whom no greater ever lived, was supreme in military genius but after the war gave his name to a university and wished for nothing greater than a contribution to the youth of his native land. Lincoln whose sensitive soul was raked by the gun fire of his countrymen hated nothing so much as war. His efforts for peace are immortal.

IRVIN CLARY ACCEPTS NEW YORK POSITION

LANDS PLACE WITH GOVERNMENT IN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK IS ANNOUNCEMENT

Irvin N. Clary has accepted a position as assistant National Bank examiner for the New York City district, according to announcement received here Monday and has begun his duties there.

Mr. Clary was cashier of the Citizens National Bank before going to New York. Last week a story was printed telling of the visit of Mr. Clary to New York but no mention was made of the position he had accepted there. When the announcement came that he had accepted the position there as assistant bank examiner, his many friends here expressed satisfaction that his genius and industry had been so well rewarded.

Mr. Clary came to the Citizens National Bank in 1920 and was then 19 years of age. His duties were to assist during the vacation periods and the management of the bank found in him the qualities that under development led to his recent position as cashier. Mr. Clary was a graduate of the Odd Fellows school at Corsicana when he came to the Citizens Bank.

He became interested as all successful men must, in his work as a banker. He was a student of the business and a wide reader of texts on banking. He took a correspondence course through three years given by the American Bankers Association and graduated from it.

Mr. Clary's advancement has not come to him by reason of position or political influence. He has made good through hard work and a brand of merit that stamps him one of the coming young men of the age. Everything to him has been gained because he was willing to make the sacrifices necessary.

Mr. Clary is one among a number of men to graduate into better positions from the Citizens Bank. Among them are Hilry Stedman, now operating a large Ford agency in Smithville; Dave Wilson, now at Bryan in the Ford business; L. T. Lewis, district representative for the Southern Union Life Insurance company with headquarters in Waco, Vernon Roberts, directing his own insurance agency in Cameron.

The Citizens Bank has now a contribution to the big show and the friends of Mr. Clary wish for him further success and advancement.

He had been a resident of Ad Hall for the past 37 years, having moved there in 1892. A small store was operated by Dr. Grigg and its hospitality was a bright spot in the community.

At fifteen years of age, Horace Chilton was under the necessity of earning his own livelihood and also that of his mother and sister. He left college in the midst of his educational course, to obtain work. He entered a printer's office, where he worked for a year, applying himself with faithfulness and intelligent energy, and acquiring a practical knowledge of the printing trade, all the while pursuing his studies at night, the only time he could call his own.

The war between the States wiped out the possessions of his family, and he cheerfully denied himself every luxury in order that all of his earnings might go toward the maintenance of the little home. In time he became a journeyman printer and followed this calling in various towns in Texas and Louisiana. He finally established a small newspaper at Tyler, which he ran until he had accumulated a small fund, by which he was enabled to accomplish a long cherished purpose, namely, to read law and secure admission to the bar.

Determined to compel success by meriting it, Mr. Chilton passed thru that period of trial and probation which faces the young and untutored lawyer in his struggle for a position of independence in his profession.

In 1877, he was married to Miss Mary W. Grinnan at Tyler, Texas, and there were eight children—George, Mary, Benjamin, Christine, Ella, William, Thomas and Arch.

Mr. Chilton has never been an office seeker, but few men in the State have done more for Democracy. In 1881 Governor Roberts appointed him assistant attorney-general, without solicitation, and after discharging the duties of that office he returned to a successful law practice.

In 1888 he was elected a delegate-at-large from the State to the national convention at St. Louis. In 1891 Governor James S. Hogg appointed him United States Senator, as a Democrat, to fill the unexpired term of Hon. John H. Reagan, who had resigned to accept the chairmanship of the State Railroad Commission. He took his seat in the United States Senate on December 7, 1891 and served until March 23, 1892. Governor Hogg and Mr. Chilton were boyhood friends and worked together in the same printing office.

Shortly after his appointment to the United States Senate, Mr. Chilton made an address to his fellow-townsmen, strongly opposing the sub-treasury idea which possessed the Farmer's Alliance men in Texas. These few sentences quoted from that speech reveal his force and simplicity:

"Concerning this (the sub-treasury) scheme, my own duty is plain. The Constitution of my country is against it. The platform of the Democratic Party is against it. Economy, business judgment, good old corn-field common sense, the experience of the past, the hopes of the future, the unanimous warnings of our great statesmen, all stand in its way."

In 1894, he was reelected to the

United States Senate to succeed Hon. Richard Coke, and served from March 4, 1895 to March 3, 1901, when he resumed the practice of law. He has resided in Dallas, Texas, since 1906, where he and his son Benjamin have been engaged in the practice of law. Senator Chilton's record in public life is unsullied and his character is free from the taint of selfish ambition. Modest and retiring, he has never entered into the scramble for place. He has often aided in elevating others (whom he considered deserving) to places of high distinction, yet has never asked anything for himself.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING IS IN THE EATING

The Famous Byrne Shorthand is the greatest system in use today. It has over 50,000 enthusiastic writers. It holds the world's record for speed in a given time, is the most simple, legible and rapid system in use, as is shown from the following remarks by students who first studied other systems:

"I take pleasure in telling the public that I previously studied Pitman Shorthand 8 months, used it in actual practice for four months. At the end of six weeks study of the Byrne Shorthand, I was a better writer than I had ever been with Pitman."

"I had been a Sloan-Duployan stenographer for 15 years; I found the system inadequate. I then took Gregg under Mr. Gregg, of Chicago, but found it illegible; I then took up Byrne Shorthand which I consider the stenographic marvel of the age."

"I first studied Pitman Shorthand, then took up Byrne. I found the Byrne 35 per cent shorter and that it could be written at a much higher rate of speed, and read like print."

"I studied Perin Shorthand almost night and day for six months, but was not competent to hold a position. I then took up the Byrne for three months and find I can hold any kind of a position."

"I graduated in Graham Shorthand, writing 100 words a minute after nine months study. After studying the Byrne, together with Byrne Bookkeeping, for four months, I could write Byrne much faster and regard it superior to any other system."

"After studying Byrne Shorthand in your school two weeks, I had a more practical working knowledge of shorthand than I did after 27 months study of the Pitman."

"After studying six different Pitman systems, I was unable to hold an ordinary office job, but with five weeks study of the Byrne, I went into the District Court and did reporting successfully and was appointed as an official Court Stenographer."

Why study any system of shorthand other than the Byrne, when the Byrne can be learned in half the time or less, read with greater ease and written at a higher rate of speed, which means better salary and promotion?

BLOATED FEELING

And Other Troubles Went

Carolinian Had Taken
Black-Draught.

Iva, S. C.—"I have used Black-Draught, at intervals, for about five years," says Mr. J. F. Gilliland, of this place. "I take it for indigestion."

"After eating, I would have a tight, bloated feeling, and pains in my chest and stomach. I would spit up my food, and some things I ate would not agree with me at all."

"I would be hungry, but afraid to eat on account of the indigestion. I would be constipated, too."

"Some one told me that I should try Black-Draught, which I did, with good results. I take just a small dose after meals, and I feel like a different person."

"I do not have any more trouble of that kind. I can now eat almost anything I want to, at any time, and it does not hurt me."

"Black-Draught is a splendid medicine. I can recommend it to others."

Thousands of people have found relief, in cases of common indigestion, by taking a pinch of Black-Draught after meals, and continuing this treatment for several days.

Take Thedford's Black-Draught. It is purely vegetable and acts in a helpful way, without the bad effects of mineral drugs.

George Washington's Life

Was a Romance of Preparation

HIS self-education and early trials gave him the confidence and resourcefulness that made him a good surveyor. As surveyor the hardships and dangers of the wilderness prepared him for service in the French and Indian War. The experiences of this war helped to fit him for the tremendous responsibilities that were his during the Revolutionary War. Political and military experiences of the Revolution prepared him for his exacting duties as the First President.

Preparation counts for much in every life, and a growing reserve fund provides one of the best preparations. Your fund, if deposited here, is safely guarded and earns interest—two good aids in the preparation for financial success.

WHAT WOULD WASHINGTON SAY TODAY ABOUT THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Nothing is more essential than that permanent, inveterate antipathies against particular nations and passionate attachments for others should be excluded, and that, in place of them, just and amicable feelings toward all should be cultivated. The nation which indulges toward another a habitual hatred or a habitual fondness is in some degree a slave. It is a slave to its animosity or to its affection, either of which is sufficient to lead it astray from its duty and its interest. Antipathy in one nation against another disposes each more readily to offer insult and injury, to lay hold of slight causes of umbrage, and to be haughty and intractable, when accidental or trifling occasions of dispute occur. Hence, frequent collisions; obstinate enmity and bloody contests. Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence (I conjure you to believe me, fellow citizens) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake, since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of a republican government. But that jealousy, to be useful must be impartial.—George Washington.

THE PROBLEM OF BAD DEBTS

Credit is the lifeblood of trade. Through credit operations active capital is multiplied many times. This accounts for the stupendous total of business exchanges. It has been potent in creating demand for goods by making their acquisitions easy. It is founded primarily on the demonstrated honesty of human beings, supported in part by the necessity of fulfilling obligations in order to keep going, and in part by well conceived credit systems through which sellers limit the commitments of buyers to their ascertained worthiness, material and moral.

Yet, with all the safeguards that have been thrown around credit it remains one of the major hazards of business. Bad debts are the chief factors in innumerable commercial disasters.

Some few lines of endeavor have been made virtually proof against bad debts. Automobile manufacturing appears to be one. At least, some of the great companies have so arranged their selling systems that they do practically a cash business. This is the more surprising since it is common knowledge that enormous numbers of automobiles are sold on deferred payment plans. Where there is much credit there must be some defaults. But most motor car producers have found the way to escape embarrassment when these occur.

To what extent this is true is revealed in a degree by the report of one of the larger companies, which announced that since 1914, though its total sale price of cars and parts (the cars sold numbered 1,500,000) disposed of was more than $1,230,000,000, its loss from bad debts amounted to only $33,000. Probably several others could show as good a record.

This ought to be the subject of profound study in all business circles. If credit losses could be materially reduced without diminished distribution and consumption of goods, the common prosperity would be greatly increased.

WASHINGTON

George Washington was a man who could live in his time, yet ahead of his time. He was a polished, captivating English gentleman, and he was our much-beloved American. He owned vast estates, he kept slaves, rode in a coach and lived on a high social plane. He wore a powdered wig, knee-breeches and buckle slippers. His tall statue, noble countenance and manly bearing gave him an air of superiority. He was grace and dignity, stateliness and honor personified.

An elegant courtier, his refinement won him a place of esteem among all who knew him. His was a personality that impressed others with tremendous reserve power. His statuesque and nobility, and withal his sympathetic qualities, made him the mightiest leader of the eighteenth century, and history holds the names of precious few who wrought as he did.

He possessed rare sagacity of judgment. He had foresight and insight. His counsel was always of the best, for his decisions were deliberate and sound. As a military chieftain his triumphs were many. The siege of Trenton was a glory all its own. At Monmouth, Princeton and Yorktown he showed himself a true knight, brave as the greatest hero, unflinching as the sturdiest patriot. He was always calm in defeat, modest in victory.

The first president of the nation he had made by the sword, he molded those states into a mighty, compact union, and gave the world the first great interpretation of nationalism, inspiring those defenders who came later.

How richly he deserves to be called "The Father of His Country."

OPINIONS

The opinionated encounter many false opinions in the world, but always among their fellowmen. To entertain an opinion demands disbelief in the opinions of those who think alike in the world is because the production of different opinions has not kept pace with the growth in population.

This conflict of opinions is ever present. The more common demonstrations are afforded by politics, religion and the League of Nations. Other examples are the picking of championship baseball and football teams, designation of screen actor and actress preferences, and deciding which car is the "best buy for the money."

The hobby is a prolific source of difference of opinion. The physical culture crank ridicules the golf fiend, and the golfer scorns the hobby of the physical culture crank. Tennis is child's play, in the opinion of a football player, and the tennis player penalizes all of football for "unnecessary roughness." Everybody generously concedes his own opinion to be right.

FORTUNE

"Don't count your chickens before they are hatched."

A sound philosophy—Nevertheless, Mose Johnson, of Wichita Falls, is wealthy, because he did count his chickens before they were hatched.

Here is the story as recorded in the daily papers:

Twenty-five years ago he gave up a clerical job, bought five white Leghorn hens and a rooster and moved to a 50-acre farm to raise chickens by the thousands. His neighbors could not see it. They said the fancy price he paid for his brood fowls was foolish. The little farm and flock had exhausted his financial resources.

Johnson's wife did a little counting herself. True all the hatching was still to be done, but she consented to giving up the certainty of a weekly pay check because she believed her husband could make a fortune come home to roost with the chickens.

Today the Johnson farm near Wichita Falls has 15,000 Leghorn hens which lay 3,000,000 eggs a year. There are so many chickens that an investment of $100,000 is represented by the buildings and equipment needed for their care. Other wives, who buy eggs for their table, can appreciate what 3,000,000 eggs mean by way of an income for Johnson and his wife. And, there is another, although smaller, Johnson poultry farm near Bowie, Texas.

However, Johnson has not escaped trying times in the chicken business. Five years after he started his flock a tornado swept his farm, destroying a 6000-egg incubator and almost all the hens. With 150 hens that survived the storm he started all over again.

About one-third of the egg output of the Wichita Falls farm is used for incubation of baby chicks last spring and summer. They were shipped to Mexico, Canada, Cuba, South America, Europe and South Africa, as well as to every state in the union.

What man has done man can do.

What Mose Johnson can do in Texas, the average progressive, indus-

Lesson for March 3

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—Eph. 1:22, 23:4-6, 11-16.

GOLDEN TEXT—So we, who are many, are one body in Christ.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Serving God in Our Church.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Serving God in Our Church.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Meaning of Church Membership.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Nature and Function of the Christian Church.

I. What It Is.

It is the body of redeemed men and women, Jews and Gentiles, called out from the world, regenerated and united to Jesus Christ as head, and to each other by the Holy Spirit.

1. It was unknown in the Old Testament time (Eph. 3:5, 6).

There were saved people in that time, but people occupying the peculiar position as members of Christ's body only could enjoy such relation after the crucifixion, and coming of the Holy Spirit.

2. Predicted by Christ (Matt. 16:18).

Shortly before Christ's going to the cross, the church was spoken of as still in the future.

3. It began at Pentecost (Acts 2).

That which Christ predicted as to the church began to be historically fulfilled on the Day of Pentecost.

II. Christ is the Head of the Church (Eph. 1:22, 23).

Christ is to the church what the head is to the human body.

III. The Unity of the Church (Eph. 4:4-6).

1. One body (v. 4).

United with Christ by faith, all believers are members of one body, of which He is the head.

2. One Spirit (v. 4).

The Holy Spirit is the agent in regeneration, and is the life uniting believers to Christ and to one another.

3. One hope (v. 4).

The hope of completed redemption at the coming of the Lord.

4. One Lord.

The one ruler of the church is Christ Himself (v. 5).

5. One faith.

Those who are under the control of the one Lord will more and more come into the unity of doctrinal beliefs.

6. One baptism (v. 5).

This is the baptism of the Holy Spirit, which is that sovereign act of the Spirit which unites believers to Jesus Christ as head and to each other as members of His body.

7. One God and Father of all.

He is the Creator and sustainer of the universe.

IV. The Ministry of the Church. (Eph. 4:11-16).

1. The ministry of certain officials (v. 11).

Gifts were bestowed upon the church for its growth.

(1) Apostles. These were appointed by Christ to superintend the preaching of the gospel in all the world, and to create an authoritative body of teaching.

(2) Prophets. These ministers were given for the expounding of the Scriptures, the body of authoritative teaching (1 Cor. 14:3).

(3) Evangelists. These seem to have been traveling missionaries to gather in the members constituting the body of Christ.

(4) Pastors and teachers. The pastor was a shepherd and teacher—two functions inherent in the one office.

2. Object of the ministry of the church (v. 12).

(1) "Perfecting of the saints."

Here is meant the mending of that which had been rent—the adjusting of something dislocated.

(2) "For the work of the ministry" (v. 12).

The perfecting of the saints has as its object their qualification to render a spiritual service.

(3) Edifying of the body of Christ. Edify means to build up the church, the body of Christ.

3. The duration of the church's ministry (v. 13).

This ministry to continue till:

(1) We come into the unity of the faith.

(2) Till we come into the knowledge of the Son of God.

(3) A perfect man, which is the measure of the stature of Christ.

4. The blessed issue of the ministry of the church (vv. 14-16).

(1) Not tossed to and fro and carried about by every wind of doctrine.

(2) Speaking the truth in love.

Already Existent

The Christian ideal, when once it is clearly apprehended, becomes already existent.—The Times (London).

The Praise of Men

Among the chief rulers also many believed on Him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.—John 12:42, 43.

When God Is Closest

God is closest to earth when His dwelling place is a consecrated human heart, a dedicated human intellect.—E. W. Donald.

Miss Catherine Rayzor and Dr. Gomer A. Goff Wed at Wichita Falls

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gaither and daughter, Miss Billie, motored to Wichita Falls last week where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Gaither's niece, Miss Catherine Rayzor to Dr. Gomer F. Goff of Dallas. The following account of the nuptials is taken from the Wichita Falls Times:

In a setting of lovely pastel shades, formed with myriads of fragrant blossoms entwined amidst southern smilax, the marriage of Dr. Gomer F. Goff of Dallas and Miss Catherine Rayzor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Rayzor, was solemnized at the First Baptist church at eight o'clock Saturday evening. The impressive ring ceremony was read by the Rev. W. C. McClung, pastor of the First Baptist church of Denton, under an arch formed of trailing smilax and accentuated on each side with a large cluster of cala lilies. Visible through the arch was a candelabra containing groups of cathedral candles. These were flanked on each side with a cluster of smaller candles sloping away from the center. Down each aisle and as emphasis for the whole setting were the single cathedral candles standing in a tall spire, and clustered about the middle with calla lilies and tied with satin ribbon. Palms, ferns and a profusion of southern smilax were used as a background. White satin covered the floor in front of the altar and was used as runners in the church aisles for the approach of the wedding party.

For the prenuptial music, R. E. Shepherd sang, "O Promise Me," accompanied at the piano by Miss Elizabeth Lomax of Denton, who also played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional.

The bride who entered on the arm of her father, was charming in a gown of ivory satin made with long, tight fitting sleeves and Chanel neckline. She wore a princess lace veil and carried a shower bouquet of orchids, with roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. O. B. Kiel, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and wore a gown of cream lace over flesh colored satin with trimmings of green ribbon and green slippers. Misses Dorothy Speer and Bertie Hammond of Denton, Lois McGahey of Vernon and Joline Woods of this city were bridesmaids. All wore taffeta gowns in bouffant styles in the pastel shades. Miss Billie Gaither of Rockdale was junior bridesmaid and wore an absinthe taffeta model with tulle and silver trimmings and absinthe colored slippers; Lucile Rayzor of Denton was flower girl and George W. Bowman of Cameron was ringbearer. The bridesmaids and matron of honor carried colonial bouquets in the rainbow colors, tied with ribbon to match their dresses. The little flower girl carried an arm basket decorated in pink and filled with rose petals which she strewed in the path of the bride.

The bride, who is a member of one of Wichita Fall's most prominent families, is a graduate of C. I. A. and was chosen to represent the college at the biennial held by the Federation of Women's Clubs at San Antonio last spring. She also christened the ship "Miss Wichita" at Houston and was this year chosen queen of the Woman's Forum annual rose carnival. She is a popular and talented reader and has appeared on programs in Wichita Falls and other cities of the state.

Dr. Goff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Goff of Sherman. He is a graduate of the University of Texas and John Hopkins Medical school, Baltimore, and a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Academic and Nu Sigma medical fraternities.

Following the reception, Dr. and Mrs. Goff left for Dallas and will be at home at 4227 Herchel avenue.

Mrs. Goff is a niece of J. M. Bowman, Mrs. James Watson and Mrs. R. J. Long of this city.

TRIPLE FOUR BRIDGE CLUB

The patriotic spirit associated with the approach of George Washington's Birthday furnished inspiration for table appointments when Mrs. S. A. Cottle entertained members of the Triple Four Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at the Cameron Country Club.

Score cards, which were in patriotic design, revealed after the games that Mrs. Tom Henderson had made high score, Mrs. Giles Avriett second high and Mrs. S. Kestenbaum, third high while Mrs. Trent Newton's score was lowest. Prizes were a box of stationery, an embroidered guest towel, ash trays for bridge tables and a perfume bottle in colonial lady design.

A salad and a dessert course were served on trays which were covered with cloths of red, white and blue and centered with blooming red geraniums in pots. Nut cups in George Washington design held confections. Gay little stick-up flags of silk waved from the top of the salads. Mrs. James L. Coleman assisted the hostess in serving.

Mrs. T. J. Denson Is Hostess To "As You Like It" Club Here

One of the prettiest social affairs of the month was the luncheon enjoyed by twelve members of the "As You Like It Club" on Wednesday with Mrs. Tom Denson as hostess.

When all the guests had arrived they were invited into the dining room where a most beautiful board awaited them. An exquisite imported linen cloth covered the handsome mahogany table, while a center of sweet peas and jonquills on a reflector edged with fern added their beauty. Long pink tapers in green holders on the buffet and table added mystic charm. Colonial maids in pink, green, lavender, yellow and rose held the unique place cards that gave the name of the guests in rhyme. California nuts in individual cups were at each place.

After the guests were seated the following four course dinner was served: grape fruit cocktail topped with pink cherry; chicken bouillon with red sauce, stuffed carrots, olives, gingerale salad, stuffed potatoes, hot rolls; strawberry ice cream topped with whipped cream, individual cakes iced in lavender; after dinner coffee. Merry conversation was enjoyed after leaving the dining room.

Demonstration Week Held For Chevrolet Over The Nation

Ten thousand Chevrolet dealers in every part of the country, assisted by more than 20,000 salesmen, participated last week in National Demonstration week, the result being that hundreds of thousands of persons experienced without obligation their first rides in the new Chevrolet six.

Although it was the first time the company had undertaken a project of this sort, sales executives, basing their opinion on the enthusiastic reports of dealers and salesmen, have already judged it as overwhelmingly successful.

Demonstration week began simultaneously last Monday in every city, town and hamlet of the country in which a Chevrolet dealer is located. Dealers arranged special mechanical displays in their salesrooms. In all cases the demonstration rides led over routes, chosen to bring out every performance feature of the new six.

In metropolitan centers the remarkable acceleration of the new car was demonstrated. Its unusual speed was displayed on the highways. Rough roads were traveled to prove the car's riding ease. In like fashion its ability to climb hills, the thorough and quiet cleavage of its four wheel brakes and its economy of operation were emphasized. In short, none of the many sensational performance features of the new car were overlooked in these comprehensive demonstrations.

The success of the undertaking was due in a large degree to the care with which the dealer organization had prepared for the event. All of the salesmen were carefully rehearsed beforehand as to their duties. The public was impressed with the fact that there were no obligations incident to the free demonstration ride.

The various Chevrolet assembly plants of the country lent their fullest cooperation. A splendid instance of this was revealed in Detroit where each of the city's 560 salesmen were in possession of individual cars thru-out the week.

R. H. Grant, vice president in charge of sales, lauded the success of the undertaking.

"For weeks enthusiastic owners of the new sixes have been letting us know how well they consider our new product," he said. "Naturally this made us feel that the more people who could experience first hand the many advanced features of the new Chevrolet six, the easier would be the task of our selling organization. In other words, we feel the new Chevrolet six is its own best salesman."

"We felt that there were thousands who realized that Chevrolet had accomplished an epoch making achievement in offering a splendid six cylinder car at practically the same price as we asked for our former four cylinder models. These people, we felt, would be interested in seeing for themselves what a remarkably fine product our new car is. It was to accommodate these thousands of interested persons that demonstration Week was sponsored by the company."

Kentucky Lady Was Seriously Ill for Months But Was Finally Relieved By Cardui.

Lawrenceburg, Ky.—"At a time in my life, when my health was undergoing a serious change," says Mrs. J. C. Ray, who lives near here, "I found Cardui to be of the greatest benefit to me. I was seriously ill for about two months, and for several months I was not well. My nerves were all unstrung. I could not bear the least noise around me. I could not sleep."

"My head ached until it seemed as if it would burst. My feet and limbs swelled dreadfully. I felt tired all the time. When I was up, I dragged around the house, but most of the time I spent on the bed. I got Cardui and began taking it regularly. Very soon I could see that it was helping me. I began to sleep better and eat more. The awful nervousness got better."

"When I had finished the first bottle, I was much better than I had been for many weeks. I was so encouraged that I kept right on. Before very long I was doing all my housework and was feeling quite well."

Thousands of other women have been helped by Cardui after long suffering from weakness and nervousness. NC-198

NEW OIL FIELD ASSURED FOR MILAM OKLAHOMA OPERATORS WILL SOON START DRILLING

Johnson Well Shows A Sure Producer

The showing of the Clark and Michalk well on the Johnson tract near Thorndale now assures Milam County of another oil field, it became known here early this week following the production of the well after it had been cleaned out with preparations under way to put it on pump.

The showing of the well bears out published news stories embracing the opinion of Luling and Neuces operators who visited the well two weeks. At that time the opinion was expressed that the well would be a producer of from 25 to 50 barrels per day. There is every indication that the well will produce in this quantity or better.

In addition to the assurance of another active field in the county the showing of this well is to bring about the most active drilling campaign the county has witnessed since the discovery of oil at Minerva.

The Johnson well has been the center of interest for more than two months while individual and company operators have bought leases and made plans for development.

The following interesting story bearing on this well is reproduced from the Thorndale Champion.

Oklahoma operators have blocked 1000 acres 2 1-2 miles north of San Gabriel, preparatory to putting down a test well in this vicinity. J. W. Davis, whose land is included in the acreage, states that the contract calls for operations to begin within 30 days and the earth to be penetrated to a depth of 2000 feet.

Several crews of research men, said to represent two major companies, are busy in the vicinity of the Johnson well making surveys and doing some scientific research work with electrical equipment. Upon the completion of this work it is thought that developments will begin on a large scale and the earth will be perforated in a number of places, off-setting the holdings of the Johnson test promoters.

Work of bailing the Johnson well was in progress on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and the well is said to have made the best showing since activities began in the bailing Tuesday, when several barrels of the crude oil was bailed out of the hole from a depth of only about 900 feet. The bailing of the well will continue until the bottom of the hole is reached when a test can be made of its capacity. It is stated that in the event the production does not pay at the present depth of 1950 feet, drilling will be resumed until the Edwards lime is reached, however, the showing already made by the present well gives assurance of a number of offset tests which will no doubt be made in the very near future.

MILAM GAS COMPANY IS DRILLING NEW WELL

BEAUMONT OPERATORS DOWN
500 FEET WITH SECOND
GAS WELL

Encouragement by the showing of gas in the W. B. White No. 1 on the Levi Taylor survey near Briary, the Milam County Gas Company owned by Beaumont operators have begun the drilling of another well, an offset of the White No. 1 and the drill is said to be down about 500 feet.

The drilling of this well supplements interest now being taken in the blocking of acreage southeast of this well by the Texas Gas Company.

The first well is said to have shown 600 pounds rock pressure at 1470 feet when completed last fall. The well has been capped and while the drillers are primarily searching for oil they believe they have found natural gas in sufficient quantities to make their investments profitable if an outlet can be found.

The Lone Star Gas Company, a distributing corporation for lesser companies in Texas, it is thought, will be interested in the development of this tract and could handle the supply if discovered in paying quantities.

RAINFALL

Following is the report of R. A. Tag in charge of the Federal weather bureau in Cameron:

Rainfall for 1928 was 23.72 inches.

Rainfall for January 1928 was 1.52 inches.

Rainfall for January 1929 was 2.18 inches.

Rainfall for February 1929 thus far is 1.52 inches.

Much Activity Noted In All Sections of Milam County Lands

The large oil companies have been attracted to Milam county oil lands as shown by the activities of the past week. In addition to the smaller concerns large acreages are being leased by Gulf, Texas and Sun Companies and the old leases of Magnolia and Pure Oil are being held. The Sun Company is doing some core drilling on leases on the Carr mine property east of Rockdale. The Magnolia Company still holds protective leases in nearly all portions of the county. Cranfill and Reynolds hold what is probably the largest acreage in the county owned by one company. This acreage is around Davilla.

The Milam Oil and Gas Company is drilling the W. B. White well No. 2 on Levi Taylor survey near Briary. Their first well on this tract was drilled to a depth of 1470 feet and brought in a gasser of 600 pounds rock pressure.

The Agricultural and Industrial Development Corporation has 3000 acres under lease in the Branchville section taken as a result of geophysical research work done by Dr. Wilhelm Hessel of Germany.

Leases are selling actively from Alligator Creek northward between Duncan and Tracy, in the neighborhood of the Clark & Michalk well, which probably was brought in for the heaviest producer in the county.

P. E. Hill, who formerly operated in Oklahoma and Kansas, owns leases on 5000 or 6000 acres near Milano. He has erected a derrick and is rigging up to drill on the I. B. Boehr tract two miles east of Milano, between the International-Great Northern and Santa Fe Railroads.

GULF GETS 2000 ACRES NEAR JOHNSON WELL

2000 ACRES SAID TO HAVE BEEN
OBTAINED IN PROTECTIVE
TRACTS IN COUNTY

Further developments in the oil activities of Milam county, disclose that the Gulf Refining Company have secured a block of 2000 acres in the vicinity of the Clark and Michalk well on the Johnson tract at Thorndale.

So far as learned this blocking of acreage does not include any drilling contracts and the Gulf has not disclosed any information regarding plans for this acreage. It is regarded here as altogether likely that the company will develop this acreage now that the Johnson well has proven a producer. For the present this acreage is held as protective acreage for this big company whose research crew has been quite active in this county during the past few weeks.

The 2000 acres are said to lie on structure and are said to comprise one of the most attractive blocks yet secured by any of the oil companies.

Of exceptional interest will be the development on the Davis tract a short distance from the Gulf lands and from the Johnson well. The Davis well is said to be spud in within the next 30 days.

Cedar Creek Wildcat Will Spud In Next Week If Rig Ready

The Cedar Creek wildcat well near Milano to be drilled by Hill and others will spud in next week if work can be completed in installing the rig and the derrick. Bad weather has delayed the drillers on this well. Considerable work was done last week during the warm days but the sudden change Tuesday caused a let up in work.

This well is near 12 miles from the H. F. Smith and the Posey wells, the only wildcats that have been drilled in that section of the county.

ACREAGE NEAR SHARPE AND TRACY BLOCKED

2200 ACRES ARE SECURED AND
DRILLING CONTRACT OFFERED
BY LAND OWNERS

Blocking of acreage near Sharpe and Tracy by interested land owners gives promise of early development in that section if a drilling contract is secured.

Nick McBurnett is instrumental in promoting the plans made thus far in connection with the development there. Mr. McBurnett said Saturday that some 2200 acres have been secured and the land owners there are interested in securing a drilling contract for the acreage. According to our information no premiums are being paid for acreage nor any charges except the condition of a deep test well being drilled.

Some of this acreage is located in the vicinity of shallow wells. In the beginning of oil development in this county some of the earlier wells were drilled there. At one time a small refinery was set up near these small wells and for a time the production was of sufficient quantity to pay operators to develop and pump these wells.

The entire acreage blocked thus far is said to offer very attractive development possibilities and a drilling contract is certain to be made.

DEEP TEST WELL NEAR JOHNSON LOCATION

OKLAHOMA OPERATORS TO BEGIN
WITHIN 30 DAYS DRILLING
ON DAVIS TRACT

Interest in development has been increased by the announcement of W. R. Robison of Muskogee, Oklahoma, of the signing of a contract for a deep well to be drilled on the Davis tract on Alligator Creek about two and a half miles from the Johnson well which has proven production and assures the county of another field.

Mr. Robison was in Cameron Monday and told a representative of this newspaper that the drilling would begin within 30 days. He is an experienced operator and is associated with C. M. Haskell, former governor of Oklahoma.

The Davis well is to be drilled 2000 feet according to information and the rig will go on location in a few weeks and actual drilling will be under way.

The Oklahoma operators have a block of 1000 acres on structure and indications are that the well will prove a producer similar or better than the Johnson well.

Development In Lease Too Rapid for News Writing

Rumored Blocking of Another Well In Area of Johnson Wildcat

It was believed here Wednesday that plans were under way for a drilling contract on other acreage being blocked in the vicinity of the Johnson well at Thorndale. While no definite information is yet obtainable it is known that interest has been created for the blocking of another area for a deep well.

If this plan matures the area opened up by the Johnson well which is said to be a sure producer, will make three wells for that section. W. R. Robison of Muskogee, Oklahoma, is to spud in within 30 days on the J. W. Davis tract two and a half miles from the Johnson well. Clark and Michalk who drilled the successful Johnson wildcat, are under contract to drill a well on the land of T. S. Henderson near the Johnson acreage.

Alexander, driller and operators has a block of acreage and will drill a well.

The big derrick has been up for more than ten days. The well is to be drilled in Robertson county just across the Milam county line and it is understood the firm has a large block of acreage. This will be the first test well to have been drilled in this proximity of the Brazos stream.

Developments in the oil play for Milam county are so rapid that news gathering in connection with the presentation of facts is difficult.

The past week has been featured by the most active leasing campaign the county has ever known. At least a half dozen blocks are reported, some definite and some in the making, all presaging a drilling campaign in this county.

The shallow pool area at Minerva and Rockdale, while producing the oil is getting little or no attention. The showing of the Johnson well at Thorndale has led the operators to the wildcat areas.

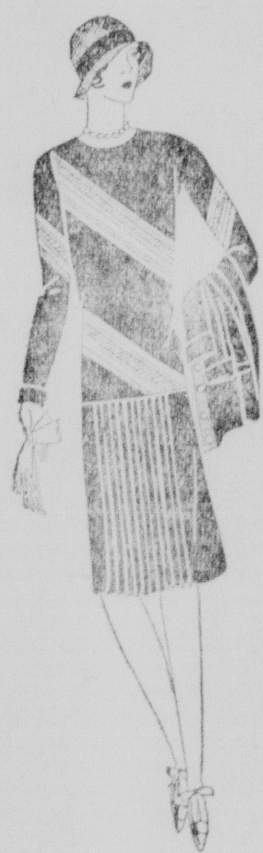

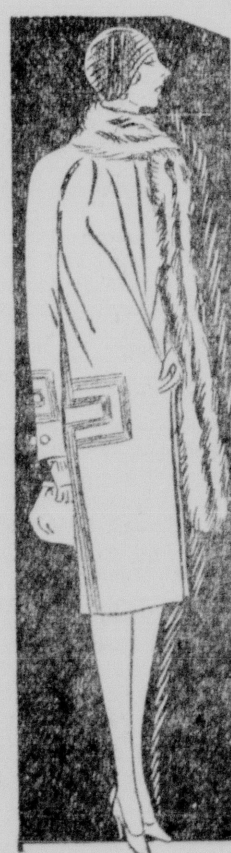

Practically in all sections of the county activity is noted. Due to the secrecy that surrounds much of the activity, it cannot be presented in news columns at once. Leasing must be done first and plans for development second.

News regarding actual drilling of wells and development of every section of Milam county, will soon be available, if present activity continues.

The developments during the past three weeks gives definite assurance that if oil is to be had in Milam it is going to be brought to the surface. What in the past has been incidental development, now has taken on the atmosphere of wide search and sections of the county held probable for years by men who know oil structures are to get tests.

28 Years Ago

The Knight of Honor of this city enjoyed a delightful feast Tuesday night, in the way of an oyster supper. After meeting at the lodge room and finishing the regular business, they adjourned at 9 o'clock to the restaurant of Chas. Coleman, where arrangements had been made for their coming. A feast indeed was there in store for the fifty members who were present. Oysters fried, oysters stewed, oysters boiled, oysters raw, in fact oysters any way they wanted them, with the side dishes all there, and served in Charlie's best style. Everything had been nicely prepared, the tables decorated, the waiters burnished up, and those present certainly enjoyed themselves. The way those Knights did hide the shelled bivalves was a wonder. The oysters vanished so fast, 'twas like the sleight of hand performance of some magician. "Now you see it now you don't see it."

This lasted until 11 o'clock, when the happy Knights departed too full of oysters for utterance. All enjoyed the delicious repast and wished for many returns of the happy occasion.

Mrs. King who has been the guest of Mrs. S. M. Burns for several days, returned to her home in Rockdals last Saturday.

Mrs. Anderson of Killeen is visiting in the city. She is the mother of Mrs. N. H. Green and is the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. S. M. Burns.

Miss Mo Kemp is visiting in Rockdals this week.

The services of the Auditorium last Sunday morning were largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. James Kilgore of the Methodist church and the sermon was very impressive. The singing by the choir was beautiful. Several were baptised and a number were admitted by letter.

A later development of the Fife meetings in Cameron is the organization of the Christian Men's League, formerly used as a theatre, and will open reading rooms for young men, and Bible classes and training classes and union religious services for all our people. The board of directors of the union league consists of J. M. Eplen, J. T. Kemp, Dr. W. W. Greer, Judge Streetman, W. M. Sprinkel, John Sharpe, John M. Hefley and the resident pastors. The objects of the union are to "maintain unity among denominations, care for and train young christian men; win men to Jesus Christ." Last night a great union prayer meeting was held in the Auditorium, conducted by former theatrical manager, L. P. Law, in which there were conversions. Another meeting is to be held tonight.

John Deere-Syracuse Quack Grass Destroyer

Gets the Tough Underground Stems

Here is a machine that will help you to kill quack grass, Canadian thistle, sow thistle, and other weeds with coarse underground stems.

It is especially designed to destroy the weeds by tearing out the network of underground stems—the only effective way. It works the seed bed from bottom to top—digs up and tears out the underground stems—brings them to the surface—leaves them so they may be conveniently gathered and hauled from the field and burned, if desired.

The high-carbon, spring-steel teeth penetrate deep and dig thoroughly. By means of levers, the teeth are quickly adjustable to the depth desired. Because of their shape and set, they will not jump around or skid over hard spots or tough root centers. The John Deere-Syracuse mixes and pulverizes the soil thoroughly. Cultivates alfalfa fields and makes them thrive.

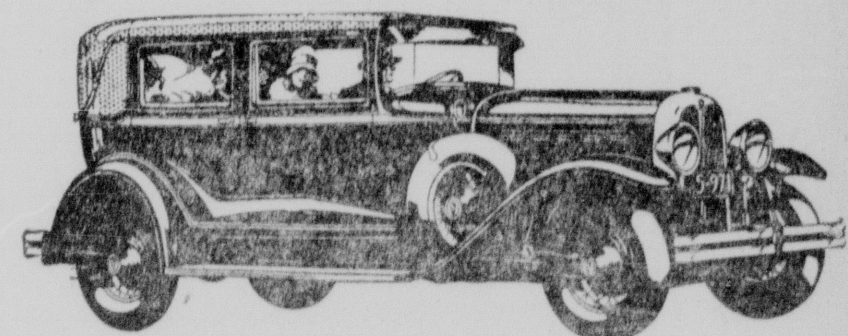

Frame is wheel-carried, six inches above the ground. Machine runs steadily in most difficult conditions.

We can furnish this machine in a size to fit your needs.

Various informal activities by state and national groups.

inauguration of Vice President in Senate Chamber, then repairs to outside stand where Chief Justice Taft administers oath of office to President-elect at between noon and 1 p. m. Inaugural address follows. The Presidential Proceedings will be filmed with sound effects, for the first time, and broadcast to every section of the country and to foreign countries, by means of short wave lengths. Still pictures, also, will be transmitted by telegraph. At about 1:15 the President and Vice President parties leave the Capitol, proceed up the Avenue, have a light collation in the White House and then repair to the Presidential Reviewing Stand to review the Parade. This stand seats 800 people all invited, and is of the Garden Pavillion type, the front enclosed in glass which can be quickly removed. Special lighting and decorations here. The official colors for the entire city will be blue and gold, these being California's colors.

The Capitol Grandstands will seat 8000 people. Seats for these are not sold but distributed officially to distinguished folk. ler of Rockdale and Mr. and Mrs. J. Coward and daughter.

Dan Fowler of Georgetown spent Saturday and Sunday with his son, Fred Fowler.

Mrs. Skinner of Oklahoma, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Terry Moore.

The Parent-Teacher Association gave a Valentine entertainment Thursday night, February 14 at the school building. On account of the rain that day the crowd was small, but every one seemed to enjoy themselves and we had plenty to eat. About $17 was made.

The Epworth League had a very interesting and instructive debate Sunday evening on "Resolved that the church has no right to spend money for foreign missions until the United States is thoroughly Christianized."

The affirmative was ably defended by F. M. Hauptfleisch, who is himself a product of foreign missions while Mrs. J. H. Thomas presented the negative side in a most efficient way. The verdict of the judges was one for the affirmative and two for the negative.

The announcement of the debate had attracted considerable attention and a goodly crowd was present to enjoy the discussion.

The Epworth League was but recently organized but is making good progress under the presidency of Miss Elsie Hauptfleisch and we are expecting great things of it.

A new church building is being planned by the Methodist congregation and the Edgewood plan has been adopted by a number of the members and others as a means of partially financing the building.

Each participant is pledging an acre of cotton to be known as the "Lord's Acre," the proceeds to be given to the church. Quite a number who have not yet pledged an acre are expected to do so when the plan is presented to them.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Walker and children spent Monday in Cameron.

R. C. Davis and family spent Sunday with their parents in Rosebud.

Miss Florence Hilliard spent the week end with her parents in Rosebud.

A Turkish Wedding Yarn

The mode of procedure at a Mohammedan wedding is like this. The priest turns to the man and asks him if he takes these women for his lawful wedded wives. Whereupon the man answers "I do." The priest then turns to the women and asks them if they take this man for their husband, whereupon each woman answers "I do." The priest then makes this statement: "There's a flock of you women there in the back who aren't going to get in on this if you don't speak a little louder."

Some of the members read early love letters which they themselves had received or which were of historical importance. Mrs. B. J. Baskin read a paper on George Washington's Love Affair, and Mrs. Graham Gillis read one on High Lights of the American Revolution. Mrs. Eplen gave the fifth lesson on the flag, which was a history of the salute to the flag. Out of town members present were Mrs. W. B. Thomas of Rogers, Mrs. Sam Mewhinney of Buckholts and Mrs. Adams of Buckholts. Mrs. Eplen served a salad plate with hot tea. Plate favors were red heart shaped baskets filled with white mints.

It's A Hard Life

"How's everything with you these days?" asked the old friend. "I'm having as hard a time as a character in a comic strip with no artist in sight to eventually straighten things out for me," sighed the other one.

A Sure Thing

Things are so contrary that probably even a cigarette lighter would work if you used it to see how much gas you had in the tank.

Texas and Texans!

By Will H. Mayes

Governor Moody's Courage

Whether one agree with him or not, those who see and hear Governor Dan Moody in action have to admit that he does not dodge issues and that he knows why he favors or opposes a measure, and also that he has the courage to tell the world what he thinks. He told members of the Texas Press Association at Austin recently that conditions at the Texas penitentiary are deplorable and that the system should be centralized at some point to be selected after a thorough study has been made of the soils, the climate conditions, accessibility, comparative expense of operating, etc., and not by an uninformed legislative body.

Texas makes large pretensions to being a State whose citizens are of the highest type of civilization, but we are barbarians in the management of convicts and the business institution. Texas newspapers should work unitedly to bring about the needed changes in penitentiary affairs.

Public Utilities Control

While nearly all the editors of Texas will agree with Moody in his penitentiary views, and they are by no means new views, there are some that may not see in the public utilities the dangers that the young Governor believes them to be. The press has not given much study to the methods of modern public utilities, for, as now controlled and operated, they are something practically new in our economic system. Moody explained in no uncertain terms how they have all the advantages in making rates for public services and why they probably do not hesitate to use their advantages. He stated that no city commission or board can cope with the highly trained experts in the matter of rate making because only the utility companies have the information at hand on which to base rates. Even a state public utilities commission is at a great disadvantage in getting at the facts necessary to fix equitable rates but certainly it would be in better position to protect the public than the city or town boards.

The utilities companies have become profitable advertising patrons of the press, but that should not cause the press to shut its eyes to the protection of the public. No one objects to a utility company securing fair returns on its investment, but every precaution should be taken to see that the returns are also a fair charge upon the public. The public utility corporation should not object to this.

State Highway Bonds

Every proponent of a constitutional amendment appeals for its submission to a vote of the people on the ground that "It is a cardinal principle of democratic government that the people have a right to alter their government or constitution." Of course it is but that does not justify a legislative body in submitting to a vote of the people any amendment it may think would not be to the interest of the government. This old "cardinal principle" plea is being made by the proponents of a big State bond issue for public highways. There is much merit in the contention that some counties that have practically bankrupted themselves in building highways without getting any permanent roads should be at least partially reimbursed, but there is much doubt in the minds of the average taxpayers whether the State should pond itself a few hundred million dollars when the amount now being raised by automobile and gas taxes is as much as the highway commission seems to be able to expend to advantage. Why go to the expense of voting on a constitutional amendment that has as little chance of being carried as that proposing a bond issue of $300,000,000 or even $175,000,000?

Legislator Disgusted

There is not much surprise that representative Veatch is disgusted and wants to resign. Mr. Veatch believes in economy in both private and public business affairs and finds himself in a legislative body that believes in spending the public funds rather recklessly by raising salaries, creating new bureaus establishing commissions and stations of various kinds and otherwise showing less regard for the State's interests than would be exercised in private business. This is not true of all legislators, for there like Mr. Veatch, would try to avoid needless expenditures but that minority seems helpless.

Each branch of the legislature started out extravagantly with its stenographers, clerks, porters, pages and other employees than were needed, doing this largely to make jobs for favorites. Salaries of employees were needlessly raised, and most of these employees stand or sit around half the time with nothing to do. No business could exist if it paid so little attention to its expense account or if it required no more work of its employees. This is largely true of many of the departments, bureaus, commissions and educational and eleemosynary institutions of the State and in many cases applies as well to the courts.

What Texas needs is not to have Rep. Veatch resign, but to send more men like him to the legislature and put more men in office and public positions who have a like regard for the affairs of the State.

More Milk Plants

Cameron is proud of its pasteurizing plant, which started out doing the one thing of pasteurizing milk, but that later will make cheese, ice cream, butter and Bulgarian butter milk.

Waco is almost beside itself in its elation over the big Borden milk factory that it has secured.

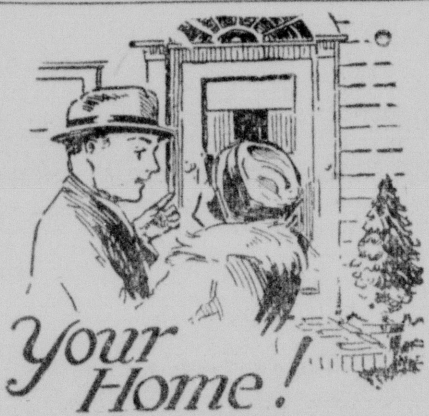

Bastrop, Elgin, Austin and dozens of other towns in Texas that I do not now recall are making plans to secure milk products factories of some kind. It begins to look like Texas will soon rival Illinois as a dairy state.

I don't want to sound a needless alarm, but there is some danger that Texas may overdo dairying as it has overdone cotton growing, and especially is there danger that its milk products plantss may get out of the control of the co-operatives and get into huge monopolistic chains that will be able to put down the price of milk and put up the price of the products. There are already such indications. We need more milk products factories, but we also need to be cautious about organizing and operating them.

Texas Button Factory

It is announced that a $50,000 button factory will be in operation at Mercedes by April 1, and that it will employ 60 or 70 people. At the beginning, 48 button-making machines will be used and this number will be increased as needed. The factory will have a weekly capacity for making 7,000 gross of muscle shells from the waters near Mercedes. This industry should have the support of every button dealer and button user in Texas.

Ignition System of New Ford Car Keeps Down Trouble

Simplicity of design, which helped make the Model T Ford car famous all over the world for its dependable performance and economical maintenance costs, is equally characteristic in the new Model A Ford.

This simplicity is particularly noticeable in the ignition system of the new car. The ignition system is standard but the units are new in design and construction and somewhat revolutionary, but there is nothing complicated about it. Being in effect the very life-stream of the car, it was designed by Henry Ford and his associates to give a maximum amount of service with a minimum amount of trouble and the thousands of Model T Fords which already have seen hard service under all sorts of conditions have vindicated the judgment of the designers.

One of the unique features of this new system is the elimination of high tension cables from the distributor to the spark plugs. Thin bronze springs, short sturdy and easily kept in place, are used for the connections between spark-plugs and distributor.

There is but one high tension cable and this connects the coil, placed on the dash, with the distributor which is on the right hand side and at the top of the engine cylinder head. The one primary wire from the switch to the distributor passes through the dash in a steel conduit which eliminates wear and danger from possible short circuits and which makes it impossible for any thief to cut the wires at the ignition lock and wire around it, so as to start the car without a key.

Ignition troubles, with this design, are rare and those few which may occur can easily be detected and readily remedied. For example, if the condenser which is a part of the ignition system should fail it is so designed that it can be replaced in two minutes. Likewise the breaker arm can be removed and replaced without the assistance of any tools whatever in less than a minute's time.

WASHINGTON'S LETTER TO HIS WIFE IN 1775 SHOWS MANY THINGS ABOUT THE MAN

You may believe me when I assure you in the most solemn manner that, so far from seeking this employment, I have used every effort in my power to avoid it, not only from my unwillingness to part with you and the family, but from a consciousness of its being a trust too great for my capacity; and I should enjoy more real happiness in one month with you at home than I have the most distant prospect of finding abroad, if my stay were to be seven times seven years. But if it has been kind of destiny that has thrown me upon this service I shall hope that my undertaking it is designed to answer some good purpose.

I shall rely confidently on that Providence which has heretofore preserved and been bountiful to me, not doubting but that I shall return to you in the fall. I shall feel no pain from the toil or danger of the campaign, my unhappiness will flow from the uneasiness I know you will feel from being left alone. I therefore beg that you will summon your whole fortitude and pass your time as agreeably as possible. Nothing will give me so much sincere satisfaction as to hear this, and to hear it from your own pen.—George Washington.

One For Him

Henderson's evening dress was rather old fashioned. His figure was not one which showed clothes to an advantage either. One evening, as he stood in the vestibule of a large restaurant waiting for his wife, a tall, pompous looking man came up to him.

"I say my man, are you the head waiter?" he drawled.

What Henderson lacked in bearing he made up for in quick thinking. Without a sign of hesitation he turned to the other. "No," he said; "but I heard him tell a young fellow this afternoon that he didn't want to see any more applicants for jobs."

Why should a boy waste 4 years in college when he can set in a barber shop for 2 hours and get the complete inside dope on everything?

"How's your insomnia, Riley?"
"Worse and worse. I can't even sleep when it's time to get up."

CHRISTIAN GROWTH

LESSON TEXT—John 1:40-42; Matt. 16:15-17; John 21:15-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Growing Like Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Growing Like Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Growing Up—To What?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Conditions of Christian Growth.

I. Following Jesus (John 1:40).

As a result of the testimony of John the Baptist, that Jesus was the Lamb of God (v. 36), Andrew followed Jesus. The proof that he really believed is that he followed Christ. This is the first essential in the Christian life.

II. Leading Others to Christ (v. 41).

As soon as Andrew had found and become acquainted with Christ, he brought his brother Peter to Christ. Christian growth can only be truly realized in the giving of oneself to the winning of souls. The one who has received the gospel, the good news, cannot help but proclaim it.

III. Confessing Jesus as the Messiah, the Son of God (Matt. 16:15-17).

The disciples had been with the Lord for several years. They had heard His wonderful words and seen His mighty works. Various opinions were extant about Him. It was now necessary for them to have a definite conception of Him. Examination came after the period of school life. As the Master Teacher, Jesus knew what it meant to the disciples to have a right conception of Himself. He knew the trying ordeal through which they would be called upon to pass as the time of his crucifixion drew near. Only as they perceived His deity would they be strong in the hour of trial. In answer to Jesus' pointed, personal question, Peter confessed to the absolute deity and Messiahship of Jesus. This conception of Christ is essential to salvation (John 20:31).

No one lacking it will ever be interested in the winning of souls. Besides, the denial of His deity is the supreme lie (1 John 2:22).

1. What Peter confessed (v. 16).

"Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." It therefore involved His Messiahship and deity. This is the burning question of today. Those who have the right conception of Christ's person and mission have no trouble in the realm of science, philosophy or ethics.

2. Christ's commendation (v. 17).

He pronounced him blessed. The evidence that Peter was blessed was that he was in spiritual touch with the heavenly Father. His conception of Christ was not revealed by flesh and blood.

3. Peter's blessing (v. 18).

Christ declared that he should become a foundation stone in His church. Christ Himself is the chief cornerstone on which the church is built. Christ's person and Messiahship were confessed by Peter, and on this rock is laid the foundation of apostles and prophets (Eph. 2:20). All believers are living stones of this house (1 Peter 2:5).

IV. Peter's Restoration (John 21:15-19).

Peter grievously sinned in denying the Lord, but he made confession, shedding bitter tears over his sin and folly. The Lord tenderly dealt with His erring disciple and restored him in his restoration. Jesus brought to Peter's mind the essential qualification for his ministry. Love is the pre-eminent gift for Christian service. To impress upon his mind this fact He three times asked the question, "Lovest thou me?" He not only asked the question three times to show the supreme qualification for service to Him but to show that there are three classes of persons demanding His service, and that these classes need special care as well as food adapted to their state.

1. Those beginning the Christian life, babes in Christ, "Feed my lambs." The word "feed" means more than instruction. It applies to the surroundings, influences and examples.

2. The mature ones, "Feed my sheep."

This seems to mean "shepherd my sheep." The mature class of believers not only need food, but discipline. They need correction and guidance.

3. The aged Christians, "Feed my sheep."

The word "feed" here is much the same as in the first case. This is a service greatly needed today. In many places the old people are greatly neglected. All provision is made for the young people. Love is the supreme need in service to the old folks.

The Humble Person

When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person. He shall deliver the island of the innocent; and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.—Job 22:29, 30.

Living and Giving

Abundant life always means overflow. The Christian life that is not overflowing is spiritually sick. It is dwarfed instead of being full grown. It is carnal, not spiritual.

IRVIN CLARY ACCEPTS NEW YORK POSITION

LANDS PLACE WITH GOVERNMENT IN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK IS ANNOUNCEMENT

Irvin N. Clary has accepted a position as assistant National Bank examiner for the New York City district, according to announcement received here Monday and has begun his duties there.

Mr. Clary was cashier of the Citizens National Bank before going to New York. Last week a story was printed telling of the visit of Mr. Clary to New York but no mention was made of the position he had accepted there. When the announcement came that he had accepted the position there as assistant bank examiner, his many friends here expressed satisfaction that his genius and industry had been so well rewarded.

Mr. Clary came to the Citizens National Bank in 1920 and was then 19 years of age. His duties were to assist during the vacation periods and the management of the bank found in him the qualities that under development led to his recent position as cashier. Mr. Clary was a graduate of the Odd Fellows school at Corsicana when he came to the Citizens Bank.

He became interested as all successful men must, in his work as a banker. He was a student of the business and a wide reader of texts on banking. He took a correspondence course through three years given by the American Bankers Association and graduated from it.

Mr. Clary's advancement has not come to him by reason of position or political influence. He has made good through hard work and a brand of merit that stamps him one of the coming young men of the age. Everything to him has been gained because he was willing to make the sacrifices necessary.

Mr. Clary is one among a number of men to graduate into better positions from the Citizens Bank. Among them are Hilry Stedman, now operating a large Ford agency in Smithville; Dave Wilson, now at Bryan in the Ford business; L. T. Lewis, district representative for the Southern Union Life Insurance company with headquarters in Waco, Vernon Roberts, directing his own insurance agency in Cameron.

The Citizens Bank has now a contribution to the big show and the friends of Mr. Clary wish for him further success and advancement.

DR. J. E. GRIGG BURIED IN CAMERON SUNDAY

AD HALL PHYSICIAN AND VETERAN RESIDENT DIES SUNDAY MORNING

Dr. J. E. Grigg, 79, veteran resident of Ad Hall and pioneer physician, died at the family residence there Sunday morning February 17, 1929.

Dr. Grigg had been in excellent health for many years but during the past few weeks had been declining in vitality and he passed away after a short illness. His death caused a widespread expression of sorrow among the people of his community as well as the county at large.

The aged physician was a true son of the Old South and was among those who served as a confederate soldier in the lost cause. He could tell much of the history of the South and that of the United States for he saw it in the making. He was born in Tennessee and graduated from a medical school in Nashville when a young man.

He had been a resident of Ad Hall for the past 37 years, having moved there in 1892. A small store was operated by Dr. Grigg and its hospital was a bright spot in the community.

Funeral services for the aged physician were held Sunday afternoon February 17, 1929 in the church of Christ at Cameron at 3:30 o'clock p. m., with Rev. Taylor of Rosebud, conducting the services. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery with C. N. Green and Bros., directing the funeral arrangements.

Dr. Grigg is survived by his widow, five grand children, one in Fort Worth, three in Austin and W. B. Denson of Cameron.

Pall bearers were H. C. Burke, J. C. Burke, J. E. Richardson, W. G. Gillis, D. K. Hall and H. J. Schattell.

Tom Thompson suffered a stroke of paralysis Tuesday at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. E. Brady where he makes his home and doctors hold little hope for his recovery. Mr. Thompson is also a brother of Mrs. W. Y. Self of Port Sullivan.

City Plans Purchase of New Fire Truck

The committee from the city council considering the purchase of a new fire truck for Cameron, has asked for more time. The city is planning the purchase of a new truck.

The plans are made necessary by the recent accident in which the old truck No. 1 was badly damaged on the road to Rogers when the firemen received a call for help from Belton to combat the fire that destroyed the building at Baylor College.

On the way up the steering wheel of the machine was broken off and the heavy truck plunged into an embankment. Frank Richter driving the machine, Roy Weems and Mike Coleman were on the machine. Neither of the firemen were injured.

QUITTING BUSINESS THIS PIONEER STORE OFFERS GOODS AT AUCTION PRICES

The R. H. Johnson Jewelry Store, one of the oldest and best known jewelry stores in central Texas and for many years an institution of great influence in commercial circles in Cameron, is to be discontinued.

In this issue of The Herald will be found a large display advertisement placing this stock before the people. According to Mrs. Johnson nothing is reserved in this sale. Ed. Barefield, experienced sales manager, is in charge of the sale for Mrs. Johnson. Assisting him is Ed Wilson, also experienced in sales of this kind.

The announcement came as a surprise to the many friends of Mrs. Johnson. The people will regret her decision to retire from business and they will be greatly interested in the sale of the big stock of jewelry, diamonds and glass and silverware.

All goods are to be sold at Auction Sale. Read the advertisement for further details.

50,000 ACRES TAKEN BY BYRON CHANEY IN COMMUNITY NEAR BRANCHVILLE

The largest acreage block said to have ever been undertaken in Milam county is reported to be in the Branchville community where Byron Chaney and associates have taken some 50,000 acres.

It is said that the leases are being sold at a nominal price without drilling contract and is believed to be a part of the protective leasing going on in various parts of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Esslinger are rejoicing over the birth of a young daughter on February 14, who has been named Patsy Eleanor. She tips the scales at nearly nine pounds.

HORACE CHILTON

(1891-1892) (1895-1901)

Horace Chilton was born in Smith County, Texas on December 29, 1853. His father was George W. Chilton and his mother Ella Goodman, both of Alabama. He was reared in Tyler, Smith County, Texas; was educated in the schools of Tyler under the tutelage of Thomas Smith and John T. Hand, and attended the Lynnland Institute in Hardin County, Kentucky for one session.

At fifteen years of age, Horace Chilton was under the necessity of earning his own livelihood and also that of his mother and sister. He left college in the midst of his educational course, to obtain work. He entered a printer's office, where he worked for a year, applying himself with faithfulness and intelligent energy, and acquiring a practical knowledge of the printing trade, all the while pursuing his studies at night, the only time he could call his own.

The war between the States wiped out the possessions of his family, and he cheerfully denied himself every luxury in order that all of his earnings might go toward the maintenance of the little home. In time he became a journeyman printer and followed this calling in various towns in Texas and Louisiana. He finally established a small newspaper at Tyler, which he ran until he had accumulated a small fund, by which he was enabled to accomplish a long cherished purpose, namely, to read law and secure admission to the bar.

Determined to compel success by meriting it, Mr. Chilton passed thru that period of trial and probation which faces the young and untried lawyer in his struggle for a position of independence in his profession.

In 1877, he was married to Miss Mary W. Grinnan at Tyler, Texas, and there were eight children—George, Mary, Benjamin, Christine, Ella, William, Thomas and Arch.

Mr. Chilton has never been an office seeker, but few men in the State have done more for Democracy. In 1881 Governor Roberts appointed him assistant attorney-general, without solicitation, and after discharging the duties of that office he returned to a successful law practice.

In 1888 he was elected a delegate-at-large from the State to the national convention at St. Louis. In 1891 Governor James S. Hogg appointed him United States Senator, as a Democrat, to fill the unexpired term of Hon. John H. Reagan, who had resigned to accept the chairmanship of the State Railroad Commission. He took his seat in the United States Senate on December 7, 1891 and served until March 23, 1892. Governor Hogg and Mr. Chilton were boyhood friends and worked together in the same printing office.

Shortly after his appointment to the United States Senate, Mr. Chilton made an address to his fellow-townsmen, strongly opposing the sub-treasury idea which possessed the Farmer's Alliance men in Texas. These few sentences quoted from that speech reveal his force and simplicity:

"Concerning this (the sub-treasury) scheme, my own duty is plain. The Constitution of my country is against it. The platform of the Democratic Party is against it. Economy, business judgment, good old corn-field common sense, the experience of the past, the hopes of the future, the unanimous warnings of our great statesmen, all stand in its way."

In 1894, he was reelected to the

United States Senate to succeed Hon. Richard Coke, and served from March 4, 1895 to March 3, 1901, when he resumed the practice of law. He has resided in Dallas, Texas, since 1906, where he and his son Benjamin have been engaged in the practice of law. Senator Chilton's record in public life is unsullied and his character is free from the taint of selfish ambition. Modest and retiring, he has never entered into the scramble for place. He has often aided in elevating others (whom he considered deserving) to places of high distinction, yet has never asked anything for himself.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING IS IN THE EATING

The Famous Byrne Shorthand is the greatest system in use today. It has over 50,000 enthusiastic writers. It holds the world's record for speed in a given time, is the most simple, legible and rapid system in use, as is shown from the following remarks by students who first studied other systems:

"I take pleasure in telling the public that I previously studied Pitman Shorthand 8 months, used it in actual practice for four months. At the end of six weeks study of the Byrne Shorthand, I was a better writer than I had ever been with Pitman."

"I had been a Sloan-Duployan stenographer for 15 years; I found the system inadequate. I then took Gregg under Mr. Gregg, of Chicago, but found it illegible; I then took up Byrne Shorthand which I consider the stenographic marvel of the age."

"I first studied Pitman Shorthand, then took up Byrne. I found the Byrne 35 per cent shorter and that it could be written at a much higher rate of speed, and read like print."

"I studied Perin Shorthand almost night and day for six months, but was not competent to hold a position. I then took up the Byrne for three months and find I can hold any kind of a position."

"I graduated in Graham Shorthand, writing 100 words a minute after nine months study. After studying the Byrne, together with Byrne Bookkeeping, for four months, I could write Byrne much faster and regard it superior to any other system."

"After studying Byrne Shorthand in your school two weeks, I had a more practical working knowledge of shorthand than I did after 27 months study of the Pitman."

"After studying six different Pitmanic systems, I was unable to hold an ordinary office job, but with five weeks study of the Byrne, I went into the District Court and did reporting successfully and was appointed as an official Court Stenographer."

Why study any system of shorthand other than the Byrne, when the Byrne can be learned in half the time or less, read with greater ease and written at a higher rate of speed, which means better salary and promo-

George Washington's Life

Was a Romance of Preparation

HIS self-education and early trials gave him the confidence and resourcefulness that made him a good surveyor. As surveyor the hardships and dangers of the wilderness prepared him for service in the French and Indian War. The experiences of this war helped to fit him for the tremendous responsibilities that were his during the Revolutionary War. Political and military experiences of the Revolution prepared him for his exacting duties as the First President.

Preparation counts for much in every life, and a growing reserve fund provides one of the best preparations. Your fund, if deposited here, is safely guarded and earns interest—two good aids in the preparation for financial success.

BLOATED FEELING

And Other Troubles Went
Away After This South
Carolinian Had Taken
Black-Draught.

Iva, S. C.—"I have used Black-Draught, at intervals, for about five years," says Mr. J. F. Gilliland, of this place. "I take it for indigestion."

"After eating, I would have a tight, bloated feeling, and pains in my chest and stomach. I would spit up my food, and some things I ate would not agree with me at all. "I would be hungry, but afraid to eat on account of the indigestion. I would be constipated, too."

"Some one told me that I should try Black-Draught, which I did, with good results. I take just a small dose after meals, and I feel like a different person."

"I do not have any more trouble of that kind. I can now eat almost anything I want to, at any time, and it does not hurt me."

"Black-Draught is a splendid medicine. I can recommend it to others."

Thousands of people have found relief, in cases of common indigestion, by taking a pinch of Black-Draught after meals, and continuing this treatment for several days.

Take Theford's Black-Draught. It is purely vegetable and acts in a helpful way, without the bad effects of mineral drugs.

WHAT WOULD WASHINGTON SAY TODAY ABOUT THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Nothing is more essential than that permanent, inveterate antipathies against particular nations and passionate attachments for others should be excluded, and that, in place of them, just and amicable feelings toward all should be cultivated. The nation which indulges toward another a habitual hatred or a habitual fondness is in some degree a slave. It is a slave to its animosity or to its affection, either of which is sufficient to lead it astray from its duty and its interest. Antipathy in one nation against another disposes each more readily to offer insult and injury, to lay hold of slight causes of umbrage, and to be haughty and intractable when accidental or trifling occasions of dispute occur. Hence, frequent collisions; obstinate enmities and bloody contests. Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence (I conjure you to believe me, fellow citizens) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake, since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of a republican government. But that jealousy, to be useful must be impartial.—George Washington.

THE PROBLEM OF BAD DEBTS

Credit is the lifeblood of trade. Through credit operations active capital is multiplied many times. This accounts for the stupendous total of business exchanges. It has been potent in creating demand for goods by making their acquisitions easy. It is founded primarily on the demonstrated honesty of human beings, supported in part by the necessity of fulfilling obligations in order to keep going, and in part by well conceived credit systems through which sellers limit the commitments of buyers to their ascertained worthiness, material and moral.

Yet, with all the safeguards that have been thrown around credit it remains one of the major hazards of business. Bad debts are the chief factors in innumerable commercial disasters.

Some few lines of endeavor have been made virtually proof against bad debts. Automobile manufacturing appears to be one. At least, some of the great companies have so arranged their selling systems that they do practically a cash business. This is the more surprising since it is common knowledge that enormous numbers of automobiles are sold on deferred payment plans. Where there is much credit there must be some defaults. But most motor car producers have found the way to escape embarrassment when these occur.

To what extent this is true is revealed in a degree by the report of one of the larger companies, which announced that since 1914, though its total sale price of cars and parts (the cars sold numbered 1,500,000) disposed of was of more than $1,230,000,000, its loss from bad debts amounted to only $33,000. Probably several others could show as good a record.

This ought to be the subject of profound study in all business circles. If credit losses could be materially reduced without diminished distribution and consumption of goods, the common prosperity would be greatly increased.

WASHINGTON

George Washington was a man who could live in his time, yet ahead of his time. He was a polished, captivating English gentleman, and he was our much-beloved American. He owned vast estates, he kept slaves, rode in a coach and lived on a high social plane. He wore a powdered wig, knee-breeches and buckle slippers. His tall statue, noble countenance and manly bearing gave him an air of superiority. He was grace and dignity, stateliness and honor personified.

An elegant courtier, his refinement won him a place of esteem among all who knew him. His was a personality that impressed others with tremendous reserve power. His stateliness and nobility, and withal his sympathetic qualities, made him the mightiest leader of the eighteenth century, and history holds the names of precious few who wrought as he did.

He possessed rare sagacity of judgment. He had foresight and insight. His counsel was always of the best, for his decisions were deliberate and sound. As a military chieftain his triumphs were many. The siege of Trenton was a glory all its own. At Monmouth, Princeton and Yorktown he showed himself a true knight, brave as the greatest hero, unflinching as the sturdiest patriot. He was always calm in defeat, modest in victory.

The first president of the nation he had made by the sword, he molded those states into a mighty, compact union, and gave the world the first great interpretation of nationalism, inspiring those defenders who came later.

How richly he deserves to be called "The Father of His Country."

OPINIONS

The opinionated encounter many false opinions in the world, but always among their fellowmen. To entertain an opinion demands disbelief in the opinions of those who think alike in the world is because the production of different opinions has not kept pace with the growth in population.

This conflict of opinions is ever present. The more common demonstrations are afforded by politics, religion and the League of Nations. Other examples are the picking of championship baseball and football teams, designation of screen actor and actress preferences, and deciding which car is the "best buy for the money."

The hobby is a prolific source of difference of opinion. The physical culture crank ridicules the golf fiend, and the golfer scorns the hobby of the physical culture crank. Tennis is child's play, in the opinion of a football player, and the tennis player penalizes all of football for "unnecessary roughness." Everybody generously concedes his own opinion to be right.

FORTUNE

"Don't count your chickens before they are hatched."

A sound philosophy—Nevertheless, Mose Johnson, of Wichita Falls, is wealthy, because he did count his chickens before they were hatched.

Here is the story as recorded in the daily papers:

Twenty-five years ago he gave up a clerical job, bought five white Leghorn hens and a rooster and moved to a 50-acre farm to raise chickens by the thousands. His neighbors could not see it. They said the fancy price he paid for his brood fowls was foolish. The little farm and flock had exhausted his financial resources.

Johnson's wife did a little counting herself. True all the hatching was still to be done, but she consented to giving up the certainty of a weekly pay check because she believed her husband could make a fortune come home to roost with the chickens.

Today the Johnson farm near Wichita Falls has 15,000 Leghorn hens which lay 3,000,000 eggs a year. There are so many chickens that an investment of $100,000 is represented by the buildings and equipment needed for their care. Other wives, who buy eggs for their table, can appreciate what 3,000,000 eggs mean by way of an income for Johnson and his wife. And, there is another, although smaller, Johnson poultry farm near Bowie, Texas.

However, Johnson has not escaped trying times in the chicken business. Five years after he started his flock a tornado swept his farm, destroying a 6000-egg incubator and almost all the hens. With 150 hens that survived the storm he started all over again.

About one-third of the egg output of the Wichita Falls farm is used for incubation of baby chicks last spring and summer. They were shipped to Mexico, Canada, Cuba, South America, Europe and South Africa, as well as to every state in the union.

What man has done man can do.

What Mose Johnson can do in Texas, the average progressive, indus-

Lesson for March 3

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—Eph. 1:22, 23:4-6, 11-16.

GOLDEN TEXT—So we, who are many, are one body in Christ.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Serving God in Our Church.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Serving God in Our Church.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Meaning of Church Membership.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Nature and Function of the Christian Church.

I. What It Is.

It is the body of redeemed men and women, Jews and Gentiles, called out from the world, regenerated and united to Jesus Christ as head, and to each other by the Holy Spirit.

1. It was unknown in the Old Testament time (Eph. 3:5, 6).

There were saved people in that time, but people occupying the peculiar position as members of Christ's body only could enjoy such relation after the crucifixion, and coming of the Holy Spirit.

2. Predicted by Christ (Matt. 16:18).

Shortly before Christ's going to the cross, the church was spoken of as still in the future.

3. It began at Pentecost (Acts 2).

That which Christ predicted as to the church began to be historically fulfilled on the Day of Pentecost.

II. Christ Is the Head of the Church (Eph. 1:22, 23).

Christ is to the church what the head is to the human body.

III. The Unity of the Church (Eph. 4:4-6).

1. One body (v. 4).

United with Christ by faith, all believers are members of one body, of which He is the head.

2. One Spirit (v. 4).

The Holy Spirit is the agent in regeneration, and is the life uniting believers to Christ and to one another.

3. One hope (v. 4).

The hope of completed redemption at the coming of the Lord.

4. One Lord.

The one ruler of the church is Christ Himself (v. 5).

5. One faith.

Those who are under the control of the one Lord will more and more come into the unity of doctrinal beliefs.

6. One baptism (v. 5).

This is the baptism of the Holy Spirit, which is that sovereign act of the Spirit which unites believers to Jesus Christ as head and to each other as members of His body.

7. One God and Father of all.

He is the Creator and sustainer of the universe.

IV. The Ministry of the Church. (Eph. 4:11-16).

1. The ministry of certain officials (v. 11).

Gifts were bestowed upon the church for its growth.

(1) Apostles. These were appointed by Christ to superintend the preaching of the gospel in all the world, and to create an authoritative body of teaching.

(2) Prophets. These ministers were given for the expounding of the Scriptures, the body of authoritative teaching (1 Cor. 14:3).

(3) Evangelists. These seem to have been traveling missionaries to gather in the members constituting the body of Christ.

(4) Pastors and teachers. The pastor was a shepherd and teacher—two functions inherent in the one office.

2. Object of the ministry of the church (v. 12).

(1) "Perfecting of the saints."

Here is meant the mending of that which had been rent—the adjusting of something dislocated.

(2) "For the work of the ministry" (v. 12).

The perfecting of the saints has as its object their qualification to render a spiritual service.

(3) Edifying of the body of Christ. Edify means to build up the church, the body of Christ.

3. The duration of the church's ministry (v. 13).

This ministry to continue till:

(1) We come into the unity of the faith.

(2) Till we come into the knowledge of the Son of God.

(3) A perfect man, which is the measure of the stature of Christ.

4. The blessed issue of the ministry of the church (vv. 14-16).

(1) Not tossed to and fro and carried about by every wind of doctrine.

(2) Speaking the truth in love.

Already Existent

The Christian ideal, when once it is nearly apprehended, becomes already existent.—The Times (London).

The Praise of Men

Among the chief rulers also many believed on Him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.—John 12:42, 43.

When God Is Closest

God is closest to earth when His dwelling place is a consecrated human heart, a dedicated human intellect.—E. W. Donald

Miss Catherine Rayzor and Dr. Gomer A. Goff Wed at Wichita Falls

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gaither and daughter, Miss Billie, motored to Wichita Falls last week where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Gaither's niece, Miss Catherine Rayzor to Dr. Gomer F. Goff of Dallas. The following account of the nuptials is taken from the Wichita Falls Times:

In a setting of lovely pastel shades, formed with myriads of fragrant blossoms entwined amidst southern smilax, the marriage of Dr. Gomer F. Goff of Dallas and Miss Catherine Rayzor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Rayzor, was solemnized at the First Baptist church at eight o'clock Saturday evening. The impressive ring ceremony was read by the Rev. W. C. McClung, pastor of the First Baptist church of Denton, under an arch formed of trailing smilax and accentuated on each side with a large cluster of cala lilies. Visible through the arch was a candelabra containing groups of cathedral candles. These were flanked on each side with a cluster of smaller candles sloping away from the center. Down each aisle and as emphasis for the whole setting were the single cathedral candles standing in a tall spire, and clustered about the middle with calla lilies and tied with satin ribbon. Palms, ferns and a profusion of southern smilax were used as a background. White satin covered the floor in front of the altar and was used as runners in the church aisles for the approach of the wedding party.

For the pre-nuptial music, R. E. Shepherd sang, "O Promise Me," accompanied at the piano by Miss Elizabeth Lomax of Denton, who also played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional.

The bride who entered on the arm of her father, was charming in a gown of ivory satin made with long, tight fitting sleeves and Chanel neckline. She wore a princess lace veil and carried a shower bouquet of orchids, with roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. O. B. Kiel, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and wore a gown of cream lace over flesh colored satin with trimmings of green ribbon and green slippers. Misses Dorothy Speer and Bertie Hammond of Denton, Lois McGahey of Vernon and Joline Woods of this city were bridesmaids. All wore taffeta gowns in bouffant styles in the pastel shades. Miss Billie Gaither of Rockdale was junior bridesmaid and wore an absinthe taffeta model with tulle and silver trimmings and absinthe colored slippers; Lucile Rayzor of Denton was flower girl and George W. Bowman of Cameron was ringbearer. The bridesmaids and matron of honor carried colonial bouquets in the rainbow colors, tied with ribbon to match their dresses. The little flower girl carried an arm basket decorated in pink and filled with rose petals which she strewed in the path of the bride.

The bride, who is a member of one of Wichita Falls' most prominent families, is a graduate of C. I. A. and was chosen to represent the college at the biennial held by the Federation of Women's Clubs at San Antonio last spring. She also christened the ship "Miss Wichita" at Houston and was this year chosen queen of the Woman's Forum annual rose carnival. She is a popular and talented reader and has appeared on programs in Wichita Falls and other cities of the state.

Dr. Goff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Goff of Sherman. He is a graduate of the University of Texas and John Hopkins Medical school, Baltimore and a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Academic and Nu Sigma medical fraternities.

Following the reception, Dr. and Mrs. Goff left for Dallas and will be at home at 4227 Herchel avenue.

Mrs. Goff is a niece of J. M. Bowman, Mrs. James Watson and Mrs. R. J. Long of this city.

TRIPLE FOUR BRIDGE CLUB

The patriotic spirit associated with the approach of George Washington's Birthday furnished inspiration for table appointments when Mrs. S. A. Cottle entertained members of the Triple Four Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at the Cameron Country Club.

Score cards, which were in patriotic design, revealed after the games that Mrs. Tom Henderson had made high score, Mrs. Giles Avriett second high and Mrs. S. Kestenbaum, third high while Mrs. Trent Newton's score was lowest. Prizes were a box of stationery, an embroidered guest towel, ash trays for bridge tables and a perfume bottle in colonial lady design.

A salad and a dessert course were served on trays which were covered with cloths of red, white and blue and centered with blooming red geraniums in pots. Nut cups in George Washington design held confections. Gay little stick-up flags of silk waved from the top of the salads. Mrs. James L. Coleman assisted the hostess in serving.

red. Salted nuts were served the guests in tiny bamboo trays during the afternoon.

Four games were enjoyed, at the conclusion of which it was announced that Miss Lucille Dickard and Mrs. John Watson had made high score for members and guest players respectively and Mrs. Gaston Barmore and Mrs. Wilson Gunn made low.

Mrs. Earnest Beard of Hillsboro, a former member of the club, was an out of town guest.

Mrs. T. J. Denson Is Hostess To "As You Like It" Club Here

One of the prettiest social affairs of the month was the luncheon enjoyed by twelve members of the "As You Like It Club" on Wednesday with Mrs. Tom Denson as hostess.

When all the guests had arrived they were invited into the dining room where a most beautiful board awaited them. An exquisite imported linen cloth covered the handsome mahogany table, while a center of sweet peas and jonquills on a reflector edged with fern added their beauty. Long pink tapers in green holders on the buffet and table added mystic charm. Colonial maids in pink, green, lavender, yellow and rose held the unique place cards that gave the name of the guests in rhyme. California nuts in individual cups were at each place.

After the guests were seated the following four course dinner was served: grape fruit cocktail topped with pink cherry; chicken bouillon with red sauce, stuffed carrots, olives, gingerale salad, stuffed potatoes, hot rolls; strawberry ice cream topped with whipped cream, individual cakes iced in lavender; after dinner coffee. Merry conversation was enjoyed after leaving the dining room.

Demonstration Week Held For Chevrolet Over The Nation

Ten thousand Chevrolet dealers in every part of the country, assisted by more than 20,000 salesmen, participated last week in National Demonstration week, the result being that hundreds of thousands of persons experienced without obligation their first rides in the new Chevrolet six.

Although it was the first time the company had undertaken a project of this sort, sales executives, basing their opinion on the enthusiastic reports of dealers and salesmen, have already judged it as overwhelmingly successful.

Demonstration week began simultaneously last Monday in every city, town and hamlet of the country in which a Chevrolet dealer is located. Dealers arranged special mechanical displays in their salesrooms. In all cases the demonstration rides led over routes, chosen to bring out every performance feature of the new six.

In metropolitan centers the remarkable acceleration of the new car was demonstrated. Its unusual speed was displayed on the highways. Rough roads were traveled to prove the car's riding ease. In like fashion its ability to climb hills, the thorough and quiet cleavage of its four wheel brakes and its economy of operation were emphasized. In short, none of the many sensational performance features of the new car were overlooked in these comprehensive demonstrations.

The success of the undertaking was due in a large degree to the care with which the dealer organization had prepared for the event. All of the salesmen were carefully rehearsed beforehand as to their duties. The public was impressed with the fact that there were no obligations incident to the free demonstration ride.

The various Chevrolet assembly plants of the country lent their fullest cooperation. A splendid instance of this was revealed in Detroit where each of the city's 560 salesmen were in possession of individual cars throughout the week.

R. H. Grant, vice president in charge of sales, lauded the success of the undertaking.

"For weeks enthusiastic owners of the new sixes have been letting us know how well they consider our new product," he said. "Naturally this made us feel that the more people who could experience first hand the many advanced features of the new Chevrolet six, the easier would be the task of our selling organization. In other words, we feel the new Chevrolet six is its own best salesman."

"We felt that there were thousands who realized that Chevrolet had accomplished an epoch making achievement in offering a splendid six cylinder car at practically the same price as we asked for our former four cylinder models. These people, we felt, would be interested in seeing for themselves what a remarkably fine product our new car is. It was to accommodate these thousands of interested persons that demonstration week was sponsored by the company."

I was seriously ill for about two months, and for several months I was not well. My nerves were all unstrung. I could not bear the least noise around me. I could not sleep."

"My head ached until it seemed as if it would burst. My feet and limbs swelled dreadfully. I felt tired all the time. When I was up, I dragged around the house, but most of the time I spent on the bed. I got Cardui and began taking it regularly. Very soon I could see that it was helping me. I began to sleep better and eat more. The awful nervousness got better."

"When I had finished the first bottle, I was much better than I had been for many weeks. I was so encouraged that I kept right on. Before very long I was doing all my housework and was feeling quite well."

NEW OIL FIELD ASSURED FOR MILAM OKLAHOMA OPERATORS WILL SOON START DRILLING

Johnson Well Shows A Sure Producer

The showing of the Clark and Michalk well on the Johnson tract near Thorndale now assures Milam County of another oil field, it became known here early this week following the production of the well after it had been cleaned out with preparations under way to put it on pump.

The showing of the well bears out published news stories embracing the opinion of Luling and Neuces operators who visited the well two weeks. At that time the opinion was expressed that the well would be a producer of from 25 to 50 barrels per day. There is every indication that the well will produce in this quantity or better.

In addition to the assurance of another active field in the county the showing of this well is to bring about the most active drilling campaign the county has witnessed since the discovery of oil at Minerva.

The Johnson well has been the center of interest for more than two months while individual and company operators have bought leases and made plans for development.

The following interesting story bearing on this well is reproduced from the Thorndale Champion.

Oklahoma operators have blocked 1000 acres 2 1-2 miles north of San Gabriel, preparatory to putting down a test well in this vicinity. J. W. Davis, whose land is included in the acreage, states that the contract calls for operations to begin within 30 days and the earth to be penetrated to a depth of 2000 feet.

Several crews of research men, said to represent two major companies, are busy in the vicinity of the Johnson well making surveys and doing some scientific research work with electrical equipment. Upon the completion of this work it is thought that developments will begin on a large scale and the earth will be perforated in a number of places, off-setting the holdings of the Johnson test promoters.

Work of bailing the Johnson well was in progress on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and the well is said to have made the best showing since activities began in the bailing Tuesday, when several barrels of the crude oil was bailed out of the hole from a depth of only about 900 feet. The bailing of the well will continue until the bottom of the hole is reached when a test can be made of its capacity. It is stated that in the event the production does not pay at the present depth of 1950 feet, drilling will be resumed until the Edwards lime is reached, however, the showing already made by the present well gives assurance of a number of offset tests which will no doubt be made in the very near future.

MILAM GAS COMPANY IS DRILLING NEW WELL

BEAUMONT OPERATORS DOWN
500 FEET WITH SECOND
GAS WELL

Encouragement by the showing of gas in the W. B. White No. 1 on the Levi Taylor survey near Briary, the Milam County Gas Company owned by Beaumont operators have begun the drilling of another well, an offset of the White No. 1 and the drill is said to be down about 500 feet.

The drilling of this well supplements interest now being taken in the blocking of acreage southeast of this well by the Texas Gas Company.

The first well is said to have shown 600 pounds rock pressure at 1470 feet when completed last fall. The well has been capped and while the drillers are primarily searching for oil they believe they have found natural gas in sufficient quantities to make their investments profitable if an outlet can be found.

The Lone Star Gas Company, a distributing corporation for lesser companies in Texas, it is thought, will be interested in the development of this tract and could handle the supply if discovered in paying quantities.

RAINFALL

Following is the report of R. A. Tag in charge of the Federal weather bureau in Cameron:

Rainfall for 1928 was 23.72 inches. Rainfall for January 1928 was 1.52 inches.

Rainfall for January 1929 was 2.18 inches.

Rainfall for February 1929 thus far is 1.52 inches.

Much Activity Noted In All Sections of Milam County Lands

The large oil companies have been attracted to Milam county oil lands as shown by the activities of the past week. In addition to the smaller concerns large acreages are being leased by Gulf, Texas and Sun Companies and the old leases of Magnolia and Pure Oil are being held. The Sun Company is doing some core drilling on leases on the Carr mine property east of Rockdale. The Magnolia Company still holds protective leases in nearly all portions of the county. Cranfill and Reynolds hold what is probably the largest acreage in the county owned by one company. This acreage is around Davilla.

The Milam Oil and Gas Company is drilling the W. B. White well No. 2 on Levi Taylor survey near Briary. Their first well on this tract was drilled to a depth of 1470 feet and brought in a gasser of 600 pounds rock pressure.

The Agricultural and Industrial Development Corporation has 3000 acres under lease in the Branchville section taken as a result of geophysical research work done by Dr. Wilhelm Hessel of Germany.

Leases are selling actively from Alligator Creek northward between Duncan and Tracy, in the neighborhood of the Clark & Michalk well, which probably was brought in for the heaviest producer in the county.

P. E. Hill, who formerly operated in Oklahoma and Kansas, owns leases on 5000 or 6000 acres near Milano. He has erected a derrick and is rigging up to drill on the I. B. Boehr tract two miles east of Milano, between the International-Great Northern and Santa Fe Railroads.

GULF GETS 2000 ACRES NEAR JOHNSON WELL

2000 ACRES SAID TO HAVE BEEN
OBTAINED IN PROTECTIVE
TRACTS IN COUNTY

Further developments in the oil activities of Milam county, disclose that the Gulf Refining Company have secured a block of 2000 acres in the vicinity of the Clark and Michalk well on the Johnson tract at Thorndale.

So far as learned this blocking of acreage does not include any drilling contracts and the Gulf has not disclosed any information regarding plans for this acreage. It is regarded here as altogether likely that the company will develop this acreage now that the Johnson well has proven a producer. For the present this acreage is held as protective acreage for this big company whose research crew has been quite active in this county during the past few weeks.

The 2000 acres are said to lie on structure and are said to comprise one of the most attractive blocks yet secured by any of the oil companies.

Of exceptional interest will be the development on the Davis tract a short distance from the Gulf lands and from the Johnson well. The Davis well is to spud in within the next 30 days.

Cedar Creek Wildcat Will Spud In Next Week If Rig Ready

The Cedar Creek wildcat well near Milano to be drilled by Hill and others will spud in next week if work can be completed in installing the rig and the derrick. Bad weather has delayed the drillers on this well. Considerable work was done last week during the warm days but the sudden change Tuesday caused a let up in work.

This well is near 12 miles from the H. F. Smith and the Posey wells, the only wildcats that have been drilled in that section of the county.

ACREAGE NEAR SHARPE AND TRACY BLOCKED

2200 ACRES ARE SECURED AND
DRILLING CONTRACT OFFERED
BY LAND OWNERS

Blocking of acreage near Sharpe and Tracy by interested land owners gives promise of early development in that section if a drilling contract is secured.

Nick McBurnett is instrumental in promoting the plans made thus far in connection with the development there. Mr. McBurnett said Saturday that some 2200 acres have been secured and the land owners there are interested in securing a drilling contract for the acreage. According to our information no premiums are being paid for acreage nor any charges except the condition of a deep test well being drilled.

Some of this acreage is located in the vicinity of shallow wells. In the beginning of oil development in this county some of the earlier wells were drilled there. At one time a small refinery was set up near these small wells and for a time the production was of sufficient quantity to pay operators to develop and pump these wells.

The entire acreage blocked thus far is said to offer very attractive development possibilities and a drilling contract is certain to be made.

DEEP TEST WELL NEAR JOHNSON LOCATION

OKLAHOMA OPERATORS TO BEGIN
WITHIN 30 DAYS DRILLING
ON DAVIS TRACT

Interest in development has been increased by the announcement of W. R. Robison of Muskogee, Oklahoma, of the signing of a contract for a deep well to be drilled on the Davis tract on Alligator Creek about two and a half miles from the Johnson well which has proven production and assures the county of another field.

Mr. Robison was in Cameron Monday and told a representative of this newspaper that the drilling would begin within 30 days. He is an experienced operator and is associated with C. M. Haskell, former governor of Oklahoma.

The Davis well is to be drilled 2000 feet according to information and the rig will go on location in a few weeks and actual drilling will be under way.

The Oklahoma operators have a block of 1000 acres on structure and indications are that the well will prove a producer similar or better than the Johnson well.

Development In Lease Too Rapid for News Writing

Rumored Blocking of Another Well In Area of Johnson Wildcat

It was believed here Wednesday that plans were under way for a drilling contract on other acreage being blocked in the vicinity of the Johnson well at Thorndale. While no definite information is yet obtainable it is known that interest has been created for the blocking of another area for a deep well.

If this plan matures the area opened up by the Johnson well which is said to be a sure producer, will make three wells for that section. W. R. Robison of Muskogee, Oklahoma, is to spud in within 30 days on the J. W. Davis tract two and a half miles from the Johnson well. Clark and Michalk who drilled the successful Johnson wildcat, are under contract to drill a well on the land of T. S. Henderson near the Johnson acreage.

Alexander, driller and operators has a block of acreage and will drill a well.

The big derrick has been up for more than ten days. The well is to be drilled in Robertson county just across the Milam county line and it is understood the firm has a large block of acreage. This will be the first test well to have been drilled in this proximity of the Brazos stream.

Developments in the oil play for Milam county are so rapid that news gathering in connection with the presentation of facts is difficult.

The past week has been featured by the most active leasing campaign the county has ever known. At least a half dozen blocks are reported, some definite and some in the making, all presaging a drilling campaign in this county.

The shallow pool area at Minerva and Rockdale, while producing the oil, is getting little or no attention. The showing of the Johnson well at Thorndale has led the operators to the wildcat areas.

Practically in all sections of the county activity is noted. Due to the secrecy that surrounds much of the activity, it cannot be presented in news columns at once. Leasing must be done first and plans for development second.

News regarding actual drilling of wells and development of every section of Milam county, will soon be available, if present activity continues.

The developments during the past three weeks gives definite assurance that if oil is to be had in Milam it is going to be brought to the surface. What in the past has been incidental development, now has taken on the atmosphere of wide search and sections of the county held probable for years by men who know oil structures are to get tests.

28 Years Ago

The Knight of Honor of this city enjoyed a delightful feast Tuesday night, in the way of an oyster supper. After meeting at the lodge room and finishing the regular business, they adjourned at 9 o'clock to the restaurant of Chas. Coleman, where arrangements had been made for their coming. A feast indeed was there in store for the fifty members who were present. Oysters fried, oysters stewed oysters boiled, oysters raw, in fact oysters any way they wanted them, with the side dishes all there, and served in Charlie's best style. Everything had been nicely prepared, the tables decorated, the waiters furnished up, and those present certainly enjoyed themselves. The way those Knights did hide the shelled bivalves was a wonder. The oysters vanished so fast, 'twas like the sleight of hand performance of some magician. "Now you see it now you don't see it."

This lasted until 11 o'clock, when the happy Knights departed too full of oysters for utterance. All enjoyed the delicious repast and wished for many returns of the happy occasion.

John Deere-Syracuse Quack Grass Destroyer

Gets the Tough Underground Stems

Here is a machine that will help you to kill quack grass, Canadian thistle, sow thistle, and other weeds with coarse underground stems.

It is especially designed to destroy the weeds by tearing out the network of underground stems—the only effective way. It works the seed bed from bottom to top—digs up and tears out the underground stems—brings them to the surface—leaves them so they may be conveniently gathered and hauled from the field and burned, if desired.

The high-carbon, spring-steel teeth penetrate deep and dig thoroughly. By means of levers, the teeth are quickly adjustable to the depth desired. Because of their shape and set, they will not jump around or skid over hard spots or tough root centers. The John Deere-Syracuse mixes and pulverizes the soil thoroughly. Cultivates alfalfa fields and makes them thrive.

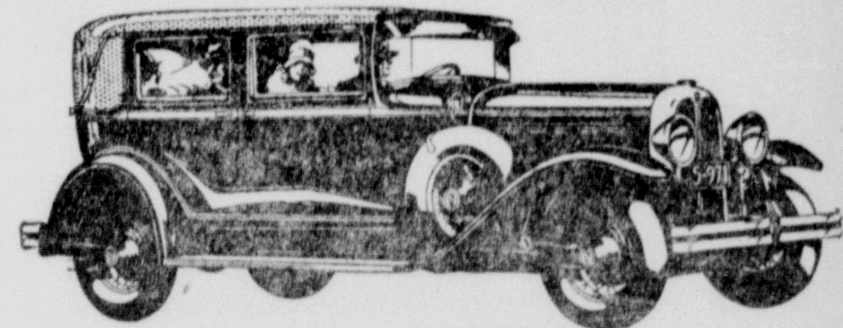

Frame is wheel-carried, six inches above the ground. Machine runs steadily in most difficult conditions.

We can furnish this machine in a size to fit your needs.

The Epworth League had a very interesting and instructive debate Sunday evening on "Resolved that the church has no right to spend money for foreign missions until the United States is thoroughly Christianized."

The affirmative was ably defended by F. M. Hauptfleisch, who is himself a product of foreign missions while Mrs. J. H. Thomas presented the negative side in a most efficient way. The verdict of the judges was one for the affirmative and two for the negative.

The announcement of the debate had attracted considerable attention and a goodly crowd was present to enjoy the discussion.

The Epworth League was but recently organized but is making good progress under the presidency of Miss Elsie Hauptfleisch and we are expecting great things of it.

A new church building is being planned by the Methodist congregation and the Edgewood plan has been adopted by a number of the members and others as a means of partially financing the building.

Each participant is pledging an acre of cotton to be known as the "Lord's Acre," the proceeds to be given to the church. Quite a number who have not yet pledged an acre are expected to do so when the plan is presented to them.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Walker and children spent Monday in Cameron.

R. C. Davis and family spent Sunday with their parents in Rosebud.

Miss Florence Hilliard spent the week end with her parents in Rosebud.

A Turkish Wedding Yarn

The mode of procedure at a Mohamadan wedding is like this. The priest turns to the man and asks him if he takes these women for his lawful wedded wives. Whereupon the man answers "I do." The priest then turns to the women and asks them if they take this man for their husband, whereupon each woman answers "I do." The priest then makes this statement: "There's a flock of you women there in the back who aren't going to get in on this if you don't speak a little louder."

Texas and Texans

By Will H. Mayes

Governor Moody's Courage

Whether one agree with him or not, those who see and hear Governor Dan Moody in action have to admit that he does not dodge issues and that he knows why he favors or opposes a measure, and also that he has the courage to tell the world what he thinks. He told members of the Texas Press Association at Austin recently that conditions at the Texas penitentiary are deplorable and that the system should be centralized at some point to be selected after a thorough study has been made of the soils, the climate conditions, accessibility, comparative expense of operating, etc., and not by an uninformed legislative body.

Texas makes large pretensions to being a State whose citizens are of the highest type of civilization, but we are barbarians in the management of convicts and the business institution. Texas newspapers should work unitedly to bring about the needed changes in penitentiary affairs.

Public Utilities Control

While nearly all the editors of Texas will agree with Moody in his penitentiary views, and they are by no means new views, there are some that may not see in the public utilities the dangers that the young Governor believes them to be. The press has not given much study to the methods of modern public utilities, for, as now controlled and operated, they are something practically new in our economic system. Moody explained in no uncertain terms how they have all the advantages in making rates for public services and why they probably do not hesitate to use their advantages. He stated that no city commission or board can cope with the highly trained experts in the matter of rate making because only the utility companies have the information at hand on which to base rates. Even a state public utilities commission is at a great disadvantage in getting at the facts necessary to fix equitable rates but certainly it would be in better position to protect the public than the city or town boards.

The utilities companies have become profitable advertising patrons of the press, but that should not cause the press to shut its eyes to the protection of the public. No one objects to a utility company securing fair returns on its investment, but every precaution should be taken to see that the returns are also a fair charge upon the public. The public utility corporation should not object to this.

State Highway Bonds

Every proponent of a constitutional amendment appeals for its submission to a vote of the people on the ground that "It is a cardinal principle of democratic government that the people have a right to alter their government or constitution." Of course it is but that does not justify a legislative body in submitting to a vote of the people any amendment it may think would not be to the interest of the government. This old "cardinal principle" plea is being made by the proponents of a big State bond issue for public highways. There is much merit in the contention that some counties that have practically bankrupted themselves in building highways without getting any permanent roads should be at least partially reimbursed, but there is much doubt in the minds of the average taxpayers whether the State should pond itself a few hundred million dollars when the amount now being raised by automobile and gas taxes is as much as the highway commission seems to be able to expend to advantage. Why go to the expense of voting on a constitutional amendment that has a little chance of being carried as that proposing a bond issue of $300,000,000 or even $175,000,000?

Legislator Disgusted

There is not much surprise that representative Veatch is disgusted and wants to resign. Mr. Veatch believes in economy in both private and public business affairs and finds himself in a legislative body that believes in spending the public funds rather recklessly by raising salaries, creating new bureaus establishing commissions and stations of various kinds and otherwise showing less regard for the State's interests than would be exercised in private business. This is not true of all legislators, for there like Mr. Veatch, would try to avoid needless expenditures but that minority seems helpless.

Each branch of the legislature started out extravagantly with its stenographers, clerks, porters, pages and other employees than were needed, doing this largely to make jobs for favorites. Salaries of employees were needlessly raised, and most of these employees stand or sit around half the time with nothing to do. No business could exist if it paid so little attention to its expense account or if it required no more work of its employees. This is largely true of many of the departments, bureaus, commissions and educational and eleemosynary institutions of the State and in many cases applies as well to the courts.

What Texas needs is not to have Rep. Veatch resign, but to send more men like him to the legislature and put more men in office and public positions who have a like regard for the affairs of the State.

More Milk Plants

Cameron is proud of its pasteurizing plant, which started out doing the one thing of pasteurizing milk, but that later will make cheese, ice cream, butter and Bulgarian butter milk.

Waco is almost beside itself in its elation over the big Borden milk factory that it has secured.

Bastrop, Elgin, Austin and dozens of other towns in Texas that I do not now recall are making plans to secure milk products factories of some kind. It begins to look like Texas will soon rival Illinois as a dairy state.

I don't want to sound a needless

alarm, but there is some danger that Texas may overdo dairying as it has overdone cotton growing, and especially is there danger that its milk products plants may get out of the control of the co-operatives and get into huge monopolistic chains that will be able to put down the price of milk and put up the price of the products. There are already such indications. We need more milk products factories, but we also need to be cautious about organizing and operating them.

Texas Button Factory

It is announced that a $50,000 button factory will be in operation at Mercedes by April 1, and that it will employ 60 or 70 people. At the beginning, 48 button-making machines will be used and this number will be increased as needed. The factory will have a weekly capacity for making 7,000 gross of muscle shells from the waters near Mercedes. This industry should have the support of every button dealer and button user in Texas.

Ignition System of New Ford Car Keeps Down Trouble

Simplicity of design, which helped make the Model T Ford car famous all over the world for its dependable performance and economical maintenance costs, is equally characteristic in the new Model A Ford.

This simplicity is particularly noticeable in the ignition system of the new car. The ignition system is standard but the units are new in design and construction and somewhat revolutionary, but there is nothing complicated about it. Being in effect the very life-stream of the car, it was designed by Henry Ford and his associates to give a maximum amount of service with a minimum amount of trouble and the thousands of Model T Fords which already have seen hard service under all sorts of conditions have vindicated the judgment of the designers.

One of the unique features of this new system is the elimination of high tension cables from the distributor to the spark plugs. Thin bronze springs, short sturdy and easily kept in place, are used for the connections between spark-plugs and distributor.

There is but one high tension cable and this connects the coil, placed on the dash, with the distributor which is on the right hand side and at the top of the engine cylinder head. The one primary wire from the switch to the distributor passes through the dash in a steel conduit which eliminates wear and danger from possible short circuits and which makes it impossible for any thief to cut the wires at the ignition lock and wire around it, so as to start the car without a key.

Ignition troubles, with this design, are rare and those few which may occur can easily be detected and readily remedied. For example, if the condenser which is a part of the ignition system should fail it is so designed that it can be replaced in two minutes. Likewise the breaker arm can be removed and replaced without the assistance of any tools whatever in less than a minute's time.

WASHINGTON'S LETTER TO HIS WIFE IN 1775 SHOWS MANY THINGS ABOUT THE MAN

You may believe me when I assure you in the most solemn manner that, so far from seeking this employment, I have used every effort in my power to avoid it, not only from my unwillingness to part with you and the family, but from a consciousness of its being a trust too great for my capacity; and I should enjoy more real happiness in one month with you at home than I have the most distant prospect of finding abroad, if my stay were to be seven times seven years. But if it has been kind of destiny that has thrown me upon this service I shall hope that my undertaking it is designed to answer some good purpose.

I shall rely confidently on that Providence which has heretofore preserved and been bountiful to me, not doubting but that I shall return to you in the fall. I shall feel no pain from the toil or danger of the campaign, my unhappiness will flow from the uneasiness I know you will feel from being left alone. I therefore beg that you will summon your whole fortitude and pass your time as agreeably as possible. Nothing will give me so much sincere satisfaction as to hear this, and to hear it from your own pen.—George Washington.

One For Him

Henderson's evening dress was rather old fashioned. His figure was not one which showed clothes to an advantage either. One evening, as he stood in the vestibule of a large restaurant waiting for his wife, a tall, pompous looking man came up to him.

"I say my man, are you the head waiter?" he drawled.

What Henderson lacked in bearing he made up for in quick thinking. Without a sign of hesitation he turned to the other. "No," he said; "but I heard him tell a young fellow this afternoon that he didn't want to see any more applicants for jobs."

Why should a boy waste 4 years in college when he can set in a barber shop for 2 hours and get the complete inside dope on everything?

"How's your insomnia, Riley?"
"Worse and worse. I can't even sleep when it's time to get up."

Give Her a Chance

Hubby: "My, but this egg's bad."
Wifey: "Well, dear, perhaps it's one by a young hen without much experience."
